

Rocheleau, Judith R.

Judith Raye Rocheleau, 64, of Cass City, passed away Thursday morning, January 20, 2005. She was born in Flint on August 8, 1940, the daughter of James and Mary (Louise) Hudson. On May 25, 1968, she married Robert Rocheleau. Judy had been a press operator with Snover Stamping Company for 25 years, and conducted the same position with EDM Company in Cass City. She enjoyed gardening and raising German shepherd dogs, and was a member of the Flint German Shepherd Club and the Thumb of Michigan Dog Club. Surviving besides her husband, Bob, are her daughter, Cindy Swartz and her husband, Jeff, of California; sons, Roland Hayward and his wife, Dawn, of Clarkston, and Scotty Hayward and his wife, Genia, of Lapeer; her step-father, Melvin Pohl, Sr.; seven grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren; a brother, Melvin Pohl, Jr.; sister, Brenda Skosich and her husband, Frank, both living in Auburn Hills; mother-in-law, Viola Schiatone; and sister-in-law, Frances Wyant and her husband, Richard. Judy was preceded in death by her mother; a brother, Robert Hudson; and father-in-law, Victor Rocheleau. Funeral services will take place at 11 a.m. on Monday, January 24, 2005, at St. Agatha Catholic Church, Gageton. Interment will be in the church cemetery. Visitation will be from 6 to 9 p.m. on Saturday, from 3 to 8 p.m. on Sunday at Gageton Funeral Chapel, and from 10 a.m. until the time of service on Monday at the church. Memorials may be directed to the family discretionary fund, or to the charity of the donor's choice.
