

July 13, 2023 Business Meeting

Meeting called to order at 10:15. There were 23 members present and no visitors.

Secretary's Minutes for June 2023: A motion to accept was made by Cynthia and seconded by Stephanie. Motion was approved.

Treasurer's Report for June 2023: A motion to accept was made by Stephanie and seconded by Bonnie. Motion was approved.

Committee Reports:

Charity quilts – Karen Dye reported that she needs long armers for quilting projects. She also stated that the guild is not doing Linus but is doing Redbird quilts. She is still checking on the domestic violence group and Isiah House.

Hospitality – Volunteers are needed for the August meeting.

Programs – The Ida Mae Couch workshop is set for August 24th. Signups need to be completed no later than Aug 10th. There were some questions on patterns for the workshop.

The information for the August block for the Lotto was placed on the back table.

Old Business

Assembly Day: Bonnie talked about it being Aug 5th and that there were still openings for registration and some classes. There is also going to be scissor sharpening for $7-8.

Fall Retreat: Same timing as the Expo. Bonnie has the information if someone is interested.

Spring Seminar (TVQA): This will be held May 31, June 1st 2024. Registration starts on November 20, 2023. Each guild has been asked to provide 10 items for sale in their Country Store.

Quilt Show: The Ag Center has limited dates available for rent in March and April 2024. We also still need to have a chairman or co-chairs to organize the quilt show. After discussion, a motion was made by Kim L and seconded by Annette to reserve the dates of March 14-16, 2024 for our quilt show. The motion was approved.

EXPO: Cynthia reported there was no update on this. The Expo is Oct 5, 6 and 7.

Featured Quilt for the Quilt Show: There were 2 quilts submitted so there was a vote on whether to continue this to the next meeting to allow more members to submit their quilt for consideration (past the original deadline) or vote today. Roxann made a motion to vote today, Karen S seconded, and the motion was approved.

The featured quilt was voted on by written ballots and Glynda H's quilt, Small Trails is our quilt for the show.

The meeting was adjourned by a motion made and seconded by Anne M. Motion was approved.
