

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, every American citizens' life, liberty and pursuit of happiness, enumerated in our Declaration of Independence, secured by the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights came under attack on September 11, 2001; and
- WHEREAS, military action precipitated the attacks calling for the protection and sacrifice of the United States Armed Forces and their loved ones, who stood ready and able to safeguard the freedom and values for which we stand; and
- WHEREAS as the conflict mounted, Publius Non-Profit, a military support organization was founded by patriotic citizens, committed to fostering a oneness between military and civilians by promoting public support and outreach to deployed warriors, including but not limited to their full participation in the U.S./ Iraqi Bridging Campaign; and
- WHEREAS, the All Veterans Memorial, a division of Publius Non-Profit was formed to lead the design and development of a unique military ceremonial ground that is reflective of our great nation's rich history of strength and unity. The AVM's educational complex nobly captures our nation's extensive lineage of honorable military service, MIA, KIA, POW, and Wounded Warriors, battles, canine service, and the United States Presidents; moreover
- WHEREAS, the all-encompassing veteran's park that pays homage to those brave warriors who were/are willing to give the ultimate sacrifice so that 'We the People' could live free, was wholly funded by private monetary donations, in-kind materials and gifts, fundraising efforts, and countless volunteer hours; an unwavering testament to the immeasurable strength, determination and extraordinary acts of AMERICAN EXCEPTIONALISM.

NOW THEREFORE, on this 28th day of May in the Year of our Lord, Two Thousand Seventeen WE THE PEOPLE, joined by AVM Founder Charlie W. Uhrmann, WWII Veteran, author, photo-journalist and philanthropist William 'Bill' Wynne, and Picatinny Arsenal respectfully request your presence to accept the people's 'On Behalf of a Grateful Nation" ALL VETERANS MEMORIAL by way of the Vaudeville Musical Production AMERICAN EXCEPTIONALISM.
