Medina City Schools Hall of Fame Committee Name Five to Class of 2017

The Medina City School's Hall of Fame Committee recently selected the inductees to the Class of 2017. The Hall of Fame recognizes and honors individuals who have made important contributions and have provided extraordinary service to their community and chosen field and to recognize non-graduates who have served as positive role models for Medina City School students and have significantly promoted and supported the District.

There are five categories in which individuals can be nominated: Academic/Career/Life Accomplishments; Athletic Accomplishments; Cultural/Performing Arts; Special Honorary Achievement; and Major Contributions to the Medina City Schools. The 2017 recipients are being honored in the following categories: The late William "Scott" Elligott-Academic/Career/Life Accomplishments; Matt Platz-Cultural/Performing Arts; Murray Van Epp-Academic/Career/Life Accomplishments; Russ Kotalac-Athletic Accomplishments; Milt Place-Special Honorary Achievement. Of these recipients, William "Scott" Elligott, Matt Platz, Murray Van Epp, and Russ Kotalac are graduates of Medina High School.

These individuals will officially be inducted into the Medina City Schools Hall of Fame during a ceremony in the spring of 2019. For more information, please contact Amy Busby at busbya@medinabees.org or Jeanne Pritchard at murphyma@zoominternet.net
