Course: Green Knoll - Blue - R - Rating 69 Slope 126 Par 72

Weather: Sunny and 40ish

It was a sunny very chilly morning and there was a frost delay. We started on the back nine around 9:30. Very few golfers on the course. It turned out to be a nice day, not very windy and the greens were receptive. Jim R and Reese tied with net 73 and Ed was one stroke behind. Jim R was the big money winner with 5 pots. At the Green Knoll Grill the discussion turned to a cheery topic of retirement and the complications of Medicare. I learned all about IRMAA which is an income-related monthly adjustment on top of the Medicare Part B and Part D premiums which works on a sliding scale based on how much income you have. IRMAA gave me a headache. I think several of our DGA members could start a consulting company to teach people about retirement issues over some cold ones on Saturday afternoons.
