DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

The Community Ecology Institute (CEI) values and respects its donors' right to privacy. It affirms that its fundraising practices protect against unauthorized use of its contributor lists. CEI utilizes donors' personal information such as names, mailing addresses and email addresses only for purposes of donor acknowledgement and/or when an individual voluntarily provides this information to join our mailing list. CEI does not share donors' personal or contact information with third party organizations. For purposes of individual donor acknowledgement, CEI releases donor names, contact information and donation amounts for financial accounting purposes, with the exception of anonymous donors. CEI strives to ensure that all donors who request acknowledgment receive appropriate acknowledgment in an orderly, timely and effective manner. Visitors to the CEI site (www.communityecologyinstitute.org) remain anonymous – CEI does not require visitors to register or provide personal information to view the site. However, there are instances when site visitors are asked for additional information in order to provide requested services. For example, information will be requested when making an online donation to CEI so that the gift may be properly processed and receipted. CEI's online donors choose the personal information that CEI receives and can opt to remain anonymous. All credit card transactions are conducted over a secure server via the third party site, PayPal (www.paypal.com). CEI does not store credit card information and its vendor, PayPal, is PCI-DSS compliant, which means that they encrypt credit card information to be unreadable, anywhere it is stored. CEI has a discontinue contact policy available on our website or by contacting our office so that donors can be removed from solicitation and other mailing lists.

CEI welcomes comments and questions about this policy. We are committed to protecting your personal information, and will make every reasonable effort to keep that information secure. Changes to this privacy policy will be reflected on the date the document is updated. Please feel free to contact us with any comments or questions: info@communityecologyinstitute.org TEL: 443-832-3824.
