Ps 19:1 The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

Psalms 19 has two themes, the creation and God's word. The creation of the firmament is an obvious testimony to God's power and wisdom. The expanse of the heavens cannot be figured but evidently stretches way out there.

They have what is called Asteroseismology (a tool to study the sound of the stars.) Their vibrations are called cosmic noise. The sun itself has a lot of different frequencies (electromagnetic waves) and the stars likewise.

The magnificent sun has frequencies which range from 10,000 waves per second up to 1 million million waves per second.

Ps 19:2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

Ps 19:3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

Also in this psalm the sun is compared to a bridegroom and the New Testament recognizes Jesus Christ as exactly that. Let's include the reference in Malachi 4 "sun of righteousness" referring to Jesus at the 2nd Advent.

- The latter and larger section of this Psalm deals with the words of God.

1. "The law of the LORD" – that which was given from Exodus thru Deuteronomy. It is stated to be perfect converting the soul. Anyone reading it with a humble mind would agree that the precepts and instructions are excellent guidelines.

2. "The testimony of the LORD" is sure – what a blessing it is to have an absolute, which gives stability and confidence.

3. "The statutes of the LORD" are right – no false ruling in them. The honest heart is glad when decisions are fair.

4. "The commandment of the LORD" is pure. It is the untainted decree that God set up for boundaries.

5. "The fear of the LORD is clean." It is wholesome and not unbalanced with puffed up power.

6. "The judgments of the LORD" are true and righteous. There is no mixture of error or bias in them.

The words of God (i.e. the Holy Bible) are worth more than gold and more delectable than the sweetest sweets.

- Ps 19:11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned;
and in keeping of them there is great reward.
