

Lamb, Kevin

Kevin Lamb, 42, of Davison, died at home, Wednesday, Aug. 13, 2008 after a long battle with a rare genetic disease.

Kevin was born in Flint on Oct. 20, 1965, son of Curtis and Myrna (Maschke) Lamb. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church. He loved his dogs and Reba McEntire.

Kevin is survived by his beloved service dog, Heidi; loving mother, Myrna; sister, Rhonda (Rick) Beard; special niece, Lindsay, whom he adored; grandparents, Ben and Lucille Maschke; favorite aunt and uncle, Linda and Doug Howard; special nieces, Becky Block and family, Sue Discher and family; step-niece, Jamie (Matt) Mlinarich and family; uncle, Rodney (Mary) Lamb; aunt, Valarie Lamb; very special friends, Steve and Julie Sheldon; honorary nephew, Sean, and many other cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, Curt.

Funeral service will be conducted at noon Monday, Aug. 18, 2008 at Allen Funeral Home, 9136 E. Davison Rd., Davison. The Rev. Todd Frusti and Deacon Dan Zudel will co-officiate. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery, Port Hope, at 2 p.m. on Tuesday.

It was Kevin's wish that memorial donations be made to Paws With A Cause, Trinity Lutheran Church or Genesys Hospice.

Kevin's family wishes to give special thanks to Genesys Hospice nurse, Mary, and hospice volunteer, Judy; Deacon Dan, Bob, Linda, Sylvia, Pastor Todd and the many other friends for helping them through this past year. Please share your thoughts with the family at
