

- "A sophisticated relationship comedy ... LYRICAL ... adventurous filmmaking."
- -- Mick LaSalle, San Francisco Chronicle
- "SEXY, mischievous and provocative ... a singular moviegoing experience."
- -- Bernard Boo, Way Too Indie
- "UNUSUAL, wildly original and ultimately insightful."
- -- David-Elijah Nahmod, San Francisco Bay Guardian
- "Like a demonic, San Franciscan response to Wim Wenders' Berlin-based WINGS OF DESIRE."
- -- Sherilyn Connelly, SF Weekly
- "Absolutely the funniest comedy in a long time ... a FASCINATING script."
- -- Lee Hartgrave, Beyond Chron

Everyone has their DEMONS.

Short Synopsis

Two demons — slinging sex, drugs and chaos — attack the lives of a struggling couple in this sultry comedic romance.

Long Synopsis

Two demons — slinging sex, drugs and chaos — attack the lives of a struggling couple. A man (Chris Pflueger) is shocked to find a demon (JP Allen) smoking a cigarette in the living room of his apartment. The demon claims he can help the man save his relationship that has recently spun out of control. Soon, as the man's girlfriend (Lucia Frangione) jogs alongside the ocean, a beautiful second demon appears (Arnica Skulstad Brown), urging her to abandon the relationship. The two demons, now on a collision course, weave temptation, drugs and violence into a thrill ride that will either save or destroy the couple—or maybe do both.

JP Allen - Writer / Director / Mister D

JP Allen is an award-winning writer/director of independent feature films, shorts and stage plays.
