- The White Pear will determine the selling price of all items based on age, condition, brand, style, size and demand. Initial Here _____
- All consigned items will be subject to a price reduction at the discretion of The White Pear. Initial Here _____
- The White Pear will split the proceeds of the sale with the seller, 50/50 for any item sold priced over $100.00. If the item is sold for less than $100.00, the consignor will receive 40% of the selling price. Initial Here _____
- The White Pear will deduct a $2.50 accounting fee which will be deducted from each consignor check issued. If the garment is purchased with a credit card, the 5.25% credit card processing fee will be split between the store and consignor and deducted from the proceeds. The White Pear issues Settlement Checks thirty (30) days following the sale. Initial Here _____
- The White Pear is a formal dress broker and cannot hold insurance for inventory it does not own. We are careful and trustworthy, but assume NO liability for fire, theft, damage, or wear. Your items are being tried on and handled and some wear should be expected at time of pick-up. Initial Here _____
- The consignment agreement is based on a 6-month period. After the 6-month period is up, the seller has the option of donating or picking up their items. It is the consignor's responsibility to keep track of the pick-up dates. All items not picked up within 14 days after the contract end date will automatically become the property of The White Pear without further notice. Consignors forfeit all claims to clothing and payments thereof after pick-up date's end. Initial Here _____
- This agreement may not be modified except in writing, signed by all parties. Initial Here _____
