

PART ONE: THE INNER YOU

In Part One of the interpretations you will read two sections concerned with your individual traits.

The first section describes your ego (sun), emotional make-up (moon), learning and intellectual orientation (Mercury), relationships and sociability (Venus), and the expression and focus of your physical energy (Mars).

The second section describes how well you deal internally with the external situations that you experience in life. Your capacity for happiness (Jupiter), ability to tolerate restrictions and frustrations (Saturn), how you are associated with or relate to new or innovative ideas and methods, and radical ideas and events that upset the status quo (Uranus), how you are associated with or affected by public ideals, morality, and spirituality (Neptune), and how you are associated with or affected by public policies toward crime, toward the power of government and industry, and toward exploration, development, conservation and distribution of natural resources (Pluto).

SUN in CANCER

As the fourth sign of the zodiac, Cancer represents the fourth stage in the evolution of man and his place in the universe. In Cancer the need is not one of individual survival as it was in the first three signs. Here, it is eternal survival through perpetuation of the species. It is the sign of fertility and nurture, and Cancerians have strong identification with these matters in one form or another. It doesn't mean all of them are good cooks or efficient housekeepers, but they all want to feel part of a family. They enjoy feeding others as much as they enjoy feeding themselves. They are also ready to supply emotional nurturing by "mothering" everyone who appears to be in need. When upset, they tend to use food as consolation, which in turn, results in problems with excess weight. As an offshoot of their sense of familial relationships, they often develop an interest in genealogy and history in general.

Cancerians are doers. They set out to accomplish things and, one way or another, they want to obtain their goals. In spite of their emotional sensitivity, they are strong-willed and have no trouble expressing what they want, then finding a way to get it. The Crab is their astrological symbol and there are certain crab-like gestures directly associated with the behavior of Cancerians. Just as the crab walks sideways rather than straight ahead, Cancerians use an indirect approach in accomplishing their goals. Rather than direct confrontation or request, they are more apt to resort to using emotional appeal. For example, they will get others to cooperate by making them feel like part of a family. At the slightest provocation or threat the crab quickly hides in the sand or retreats into a shell until safer times are at hand. Cancerians who feel threatened or suspect that their attempts may be unsuccessful, often hide their true ambitions until a more comfortable situation occurs.

Cancerians react emotionally to everything they experience in life. That is, before they take physical action, before they sort out the practicality of what they are doing, and before they reason things out intellectually, they must express their feelings. They wear their hearts on their sleeves. Many Cancerians succeed in life because their genuine concern for the welfare of others inspires loyalty as well as cooperation.

The Moon, celestial guardian of human emotions, rules Cancer. The biggest struggle for Cancerians is to avoid becoming prisoners of their own emotions. Though they can be outwardly gregarious, they are shy and secretive about their personal matters. However, once they feel comfortable in a situation or relationship, they relax and completely open up even to the point of dominating the situation. Not usually ones to suffer in silence, they have to make an effort not to inflict their moods and endless recitations of their feelings or emotional troubles on others. Once they learn to keep excess emotions in control, their intuition can be remarkably accurate. Their emotional insecurity makes them want to hang on to things. They hate to throw anything away, and many end up avid collectors, conservators, and savers of string. It is equally difficult for them to give up on failed relationships, and still harder for them to learn the difference between caring and possessiveness. When they receive criticism, even constructive criticism, they tend to take it as a personal indictment instead of using it to attain personal growth and maturity.

Participation in physical fitness or sports activities becomes an important, often vital way for Cancerians to work out their emotional stress. They are especially adaptable to team sports since they tend to view their team members as part of a family-like group. Favorite Cancerian sports are swimming, fishing, sailing and other water activities. They also enjoy skiing, ice skating, and mountain climbing. Cancerians are creative. Even those who may not have a particular talent can use some type of involvement with art, music, or writing as another method of emotional release, instead of indulging in eating binges or other destructive habits. Living or spending time near the water is a relaxing, as well as creatively stimulating environment for Cancerians.

Cancer colors are white, silver, and pale yellow. Vulnerable parts of the body are the breasts and stomach. Stomach aches, food allergies, and hysterics are the usual afflictions of Cancerians. Cancer rules silver, and the ruby as well as the pearl are considered Cancerian birthstones. The surroundings of a beautiful piece of silver are reflected in its shiny polished surface. Similarly, the emotionally sensitive nature of Cancerians tends to reflect the people and circumstances surrounding them. The ruby, a variety of corundum, is one of the hardest minerals known, while the pearl is soft and easily scratched. These gems uniquely illustrate the two contrasting sides of the Cancerian personality; hard and determined as well as soft and vulnerable. Cancerian flowers are the water lily (lotus), iris, poppy (white), carnation (white) and southern magnolia.

MOON in CAPRICORN

♄ in ♑

Except in the pursuit of pleasure (to which many of them can be quite dedicated) those born with the moon in an Earth sign are not emotionally spontaneous. They don't nonchalantly accept the responsibility of long-term relationships, or analyze emotional commitments merely as a mental exercise. They may hesitate to move at all unless they feel they are on solid ground, or there is some personal advantage to be gained by their emotional involvement. As lunar Earth sign personalities, those with moon in Capricorn are of a practical nature. Though willing to fulfill responsibilities for a relationship, they are often unable or unwilling to understand what the other person actually wants or needs. Capricorn's influence on these lunar personalities is demonstrated by their tendency to worry, and their need for structure and formality. They find it hard to relate to those who do not share their opinions and values. Reluctant or unable to discuss their own problems, they are nevertheless quite willing to help with the problems of others. It is never very easy for them to express their deepest emotions, to feel relaxed and content inside themselves. Fear of rejection is strong. Anything vague or unspecified in a relationship, whether business or personal, makes them feel insecure. They must know where they stand. Everything must be proper and legal. When it comes to romance and marriage, it may take them longer to find someone they can love as well as trust.

Capricorn moon personalities are dedicated to getting their own way and accomplishing personal goals. Ambitious and strong-willed, their efforts are primarily directed to their own advancement, though they can be very effective in helping others to progress. They enjoy being in the spotlight which prompts many of them to seek a public or prominent position in their work or other activities. They have great respect for knowledge and are often quite intelligent themselves. Tendency to harbor anger and resentment instead of allowing themselves some type of emotional release, can cause physical maladies and depression.

Women with Capricorn moon are likely to be ambitious at the expense of their personal life. More interested in gaining material wealth and status, or overburdened with too many responsibilities, they can miss the joy and satisfaction of relationships. They are excellent administrators. Men with Capricorn moon have difficulty relating to women. Relationships with females may be too formal to allow warmth and closeness, or the bond they share may be so tight as to be emotionally crippling. Their complicated emotional nature must be handled with considerable patience and understanding.

MERCURY in CANCER

♀ in ♋

The enhanced emotional influence of Mercury in Cancer implies imagination, creativity or artistic talent. These individuals may find it difficult to separate their thoughts from their feelings. They are extremely susceptible to consciously or subconsciously absorbing the ideas and thoughts of those around them. This makes objectivity and originality hard for them to generate. They can, however, inject valuable intuitive or instinctive elements into ideas or into the expression of ideas to make them more appealing and effective.

Whatever their ideas may be, or however they may have been generated, Mercury in Cancer individuals need to find some means of personally expressing them. They will not be content to go unnoticed or unappreciated. Methods and motivation for learning, communication and transportation are subject to their prevailing mood at any given time.

VENUS in VIRGO

♀ in ♍

Individuals with Venus in Virgo may be somewhat inhibited when it comes to establishing social relationships. They do however, quickly warm to people who go out of their way to make them feel at ease, those with similar interests, and those with whom they can find some means of personal identification. Even if they are very interested in pursuing a relationship (romantic or otherwise) they are not likely to be the aggressor. When they do go out of their way to form associations, it is usually for practical reasons. Close friendships may be few, but those they do make are treated with care and responsibility. They can miss good times, good friends, and sometimes even romance, because they wait too long for the conditions to be just perfect.

MARS in CANCER

♂ in ♋

The emotional state of individuals with Mars in Cancer motivates the direction of their physical energies. However, when they are motivated, their efforts are forceful and aimed at accomplishment. They energetically go after what and whom they want. At times their actions can become terribly misguided by possessiveness or jealousy. The Cancerian influence implies a domestic streak, and many efforts may be directed toward family or domestic activities. They are likely to be avid collectors and savers of everything. They engage in such Cancer-ruled jobs as catering, agriculture, building, real estate, family counseling, and areas that involve women or children.

JUPITER in CANCER

♃ in ♋

Individuals with natal Jupiter in Cancer experience personal growth and expansion through their family and domestic environment. The concept of nurturing is a strong element in this Jupiter sign position, and these individuals are often talented cooks, caterers, psychological counselors and educators. They may be subjected to emotional extremes and must carefully avoid over-reactions. Knowledge of human emotions and learning how to control the power and sensitivity of feelings are what these individuals can gain in life.

SATURN in SCORPIO

♄ in ♏

Individuals with Saturn in Scorpio encounter responsibility and restriction involving payment of debts of one kind or another. The kind of debts they have are determined by other factors in their natal chart, but they may be of an emotional, physical, financial, or moral nature. The intensity associated with Scorpio and the rigidity of Saturn indicate confrontation with limitations that are imposed by the presence of too much control in some area of their lives, or manipulation in order to gain control.

URANUS in ARIES

♅ in ♈

The generation of individuals born with natal Uranus in Aries are given the energy and courage to explore new fields of research and technology. They are prepared to accept change for its own sake as well as other reasons. In turn, this attitude inspires progress. Caution is necessary however, or in their haste they may destroy that which was worth keeping.

NEPTUNE in PISCES

♆ in ♋

The last period of Neptune in Pisces was 1847-1862. Neptune and Pisces rule religion, spiritualism, drugs, illusion and confusion. In the 1800's Bernadette Soubirous of Lourdes announced her visions of the Virgin Mary. Horace Wells, a pioneer in anesthesia, was jailed while under the influence of chloroform. He later committed suicide in a fit of apparent despondence

PLUTO in CAPRICORN

♇ in ♏

Pluto's last period in Capricorn was 1762-1778. Pluto will not transit Capricorn again until the next century. Capricorn rules structure, form, and legality. During Pluto's last transit, its powerful energies influenced the men who wrote the Declaration of Independence that granted America her freedom as a new nation with her own form of government.

PART TWO: THE OUTER YOU

In Part Two you will read about the twelve houses of the horoscope. The houses represent areas of life in which you operate on a daily basis. You will read descriptions of how you handle the circumstances you encounter in each of these areas, according to your nature, personality and other traits as they are outlined in Part One.

HOUSE 1

The first house and the sign that rules the first house, which is also known as the Ascendant or Rising sign, describes your outer personality and physical attributes. To some extent it also describes your health and the type of illnesses you may experience.

SCORPIO ASCENDANT

♏ on 1st

A Scorpio Ascendant indicates individuals who are likely to have strong physiques and tremendous physical stamina. They are often far more stubborn than they seem on the surface, and assiduously stick to their goals as long as they feel there is a chance they will be successful. It is difficult to convince them to change their minds once their decisions are made.

They are emotionally oriented, but their emotional vulnerability is apt to be hidden unless their natal sun or moon happens to be in Cancer or Pisces. They are friendly and while some are rather quiet, many of them also have far more gregarious personalities and don't mind being in the spotlight. Rarely do these individuals possess the sinister or mysterious personalities that popular literature tends to associate with the sign of Scorpio. They are keen observers and shrewd speculators.

Scorpio is ruled by Pluto and, secondarily, by this sign's ancient ruler, the planet Mars. Both planetary influences may be seen in the personalities of these individuals. They are ambitious, energetic, and seek activities that are economically rewarding, as well as mentally or physically challenging. The jealousy associated with Mars and Pluto is minimal unless other factors in their individual personalities support such a trait. Many of them possess the cleverness and mechanical ability associated with Mars, as well as the innate resourcefulness associated with Pluto. They are attracted to others with strong, magnetic personalities. They are oriented toward gathering resources of all kinds. For example, many of these individuals consciously or subconsciously tend to establish relationships with strong or powerful people in the belief such contacts may prove useful to them in some way. They can be quite secretive about personal affairs, a trait that often escapes the attention of most people they meet. They are often so accommodating and pleasant that, unless others make serious attempts to probe beneath their surface, their real personalities and activities stay hidden indefinitely.

They have remarkable recuperative powers that allow them to recover from physical, mental or economic adversities that would destroy many others. When properly focused, their energy is formidable and they quietly keep going long after everyone else runs out of steam. A Scorpio Ascendant indicates potential for afflictions to the head and face as well as illnesses affecting the reproductive organs.

HOUSE 2

The second house describes material assets, how you handle monetary income, and the potential ways it may be earned. It also indicates the values and priorities you establish throughout life.

CAPRICORN on 2nd HOUSE

♄ on 2nd

Capricorn ruling the second house is not an indication of great wealth nor does it imply a lack of wealth. It indicates individuals whose material assets, values and priorities are likely to be a constant source of concern. However, worry over money may be what motivates them to acquire enough income that poverty never becomes a reality. There is also potential that some of these individuals will rebel against monetary restrictions, and, valuing the pleasures of life more than security, they waste their resources. Even in those who are miserly, or at least very conservative about spending money, there are conflicting patterns of behavior to which they may fall victim. Appropriate to the old adage of being "penny wise and pound foolish," they can be foolishly extravagant when it was unnecessary and excessively prudent when a more generous attitude would have been wise. This behavior applies to more than just money. Their biggest fear, for example, may be that others will take advantage of their time and talents. Establishing the correct values and priorities, and reacting to monetary advantages, or disadvantages, as the case may be, are life's biggest challenges.

MOON in 2nd HOUSE

☽ in 2nd

Moon in the second house indicates those who equate money or personal assets with emotional security. As a result of this they exhibit certain behavior patterns. Lack of assets can make them feel so insecure and vulnerable that they become extremely conservative or even miserly. However, the behavior many seem to exhibit is impulse buying or spending money as a means of emotional consolation. Whether or not they actually realize what they are doing, these individuals may also attempt to use money or status in order to elicit affections or cooperation of others. In some cases, they may allow themselves to be bartered in this way. The negative potential includes those who have to assume financial responsibilities for family members. The Moon's influence suggests a certain flexibility when it comes to priorities. What is important to them today may not be so important tomorrow. They may derive income or property through a woman or as a result of inheritance.

MOON square SATURN

Outward success is nearly always possible for those with Moon square Saturn, but it isn't easy; and more often than not, they are not satisfied after it is achieved. Lack of emotional flexibility can be one of the impediments to being truly happy. They may be guilty of always trying to get around rules and regulations, though they are not above imposing them on others. There may be reticence or awkwardness when expressing their feelings. These are individuals who learn from their mistakes and possess the capability of developing organization and patience which are the keys to phenomenal success.

PLUTO in 2nd HOUSE

♇ in 2nd

Pluto in the second house indicates those with intense desires. These individuals may focus so intently on attaining something that everything and everyone else becomes meaningless. They find it difficult, if not impossible, to give up one thing in order to attain another. Consciously or subconsciously, they tend to equate wealth or status with control or power. However, the real power these individuals can gain comes through their understanding that money and material assets may be attained but never really owned, and. . . that all things, including the amount of time and the physical body they are given at birth, are merely borrowed. Pluto's influence suggests the potential for complete regeneration of assets. It includes the potential for these individuals to experience circumstances that help them develop much deeper values and priorities. Other potentials include those who are more likely to leave an inheritance than to gain one. Pluto also suggests that by choice or circumstances, there may be secrecy associated with their income or assets.

HOUSE 3

The third house describes your mental state, intellectual orientation, self-expression and communication, early education, mechanical dexterity and skills, immediate environment (neighborhood), and siblings. It indicates physical actions, and transportation, especially within your immediate environment. To a certain extent the third house also describes the job or health of your father.

AQUARIUS on the 3rd HOUSE

♊ on 3rd

Aquarius ruling the third house indicates individuals with keen intellects, however, their knowledge may be quite unpredictable and may suddenly slip from memory when they need it. This makes it difficult for them to test or use their knowledge unless they practice retention, develop organization, and eliminate distractions. They pick up all sorts of trivia or knowledge of odd and unusual subjects. They are apt to be the most adept self-taught individuals around, becoming experts on a subject or developing certain mechanical skills with little or no formal training. In the structured routine of classroom instruction however, they can grow restless unless highly stimulated by the subject being discussed. They are eagerly receptive to new ideas or different approaches to learning, and may come up with ingenious ideas and clever solutions of their own. If forced to endure sermons or moralizing lectures, they are sure to head for the nearest exit. They may find it hard to sit still for long periods of time even when being entertained. They are apt to give clever names to ordinary things and often come up with appropriate nicknames for people. Separation from siblings is also a strong likelihood.

NEPTUNE in 3rd HOUSE

♆ in 3rd

Neptune in the third house indicates those who are highly intelligent. They are, however, also apt to be mentally lazy, unwilling to explore areas of thought and ideas that appear to be too much work. They are not very anxious to be around strangers and people with whom they are not well acquainted. They enjoy watching others while remaining hidden or unobserved themselves.

Neptune's third house influence includes potential for the father's occupation to be in the navy, maritime industry, chemistry, photography, footwear, religion, medicine, psychology, or areas that involve those who are disabled, institutionalized, or minorities. The father may suffer from hypochondria or hard-to-diagnose illnesses. Neptune in the third house includes individuals who form particularly sensitive, perhaps clairvoyant, relationships with their siblings, and those who experience untimely loss of siblings. The neighbors or siblings of these individuals may be involved with drugs or other illegal activities. Other potentials of Neptune's influence include those who suffer mental confusion, and those who rely too heavily on alcohol or other drugs to calm their fears and insecurities. It is necessary for these individuals to spend periods of time in a quiet, non-threatening environment. They may derive special benefit from being near the ocean. They often use pet names or aliases for themselves or their friends. Negative factors in their personality or background can cause them to develop fear of water, or fears that prevent them from going very far outside their own neighborhood.

NEPTUNE sextile PLUTO

♆ ✕ ♇

Neptune sextile Pluto is an aspect of extremely long duration. The current sextile between these two planets has been affecting generations for the last forty years. This long term Neptune aspect influences on society represents constant opportunities to change the course of existing structures and pave the way for new ones. Those who will live under the influence of the other aspects (i. e. , conjunction, square, trine, and opposition) as they occur between these planets in the future will have to deal with the ideologies and other societal institutions that we have had the opportunities to create.

HOUSE 4

The fourth house describes your residence, domestic environment, and family members, especially your mother. It indicates the beginning as well as the end of various cycles in your life.

PISCES on 4th HOUSE

♆ on 4th

Being an adopted child is one potential of having Pisces rule the fourth house. These individuals may be abandoned, either literally or figuratively by one of the parents. One parent may be disabled or addicted to drugs or alcohol. There is likely to be some deprivation associated with their childhood, or at least they are apt to feel deprived or abandoned even if it is not true. They may have a deeply spiritual or psychically sensitive relationship with the mother, or she may be deeply religious, possess remarkable intuition or psychic abilities, or have artistic talent. Other possibilities associated with Pisces and the fourth house are that these individuals reside near or on the water, especially the ocean. When there is chaos in their homes, they will feel psychologically drained. Even if they are very socially oriented and enjoy constantly playing host to friends and family, it is necessary to be left completely alone at times. Their homes should always be places that provide a quiet atmosphere where they can feel at peace and recharge their physical and emotional energies.

URANUS in 4th HOUSE

♃ in 4th

Uranus in the fourth house indicates those who experience unpredictable, unusual or unorthodox circumstances regarding home and family. These individuals are apt to adopt a very different life style or reside in a much different type of place than the one in which they were brought up. Choosing a dramatically different life style or environment may be deliberate on their part, but it is just as likely to occur as a result of circumstances over which they have no control. Other potentials include those who experience sudden separation from a parent or from home and family, and those who are forced by circumstances to live for a time under abnormal or unusual conditions. The influence of Uranus also suggests those who tend to favor odd or unusual designs and architecture in their home and its furnishings. They enjoy mixing the very old with the very new in eclectic arrangements. Everyone is welcomed into their home as a friend, and their home is likely to be the favorite gathering place for the groups and organizations to which they belong.

URANUS square PLUTO

Uranus square Pluto only applies to those born in the early 30's. Their lives were dramatically changed as a result of the great depression that preceded their births. Their early years were shaped by this transformation that affected all levels of society and, subtle or not, it affects how members of this generation behave as adults. How subtle or great an influence depends on other factors in their personalities and backgrounds.

HOUSE 5

The fifth house describes your creative talent and imaginative powers, capacity for enjoyment and the pursuit of pleasure, romance, children, and speculative ventures.

ARIES on 5th HOUSE

♈ on 5th

Aries ruling the fifth house indicates individuals who are likely to concentrate much energy and vitality on creative projects, romance and/or the pursuit of physical pleasures. It indicates a love of children and further implies a high potential for procreation. They are apt to possess vivid imaginations and strong idealistic or spiritualistic tendencies. In the absence of one category, they will redirect or sublimate their energy into another. If age or circumstances, for example, prevent procreation they may nevertheless have the care or education of other peoples' children. Being creative, they may focus energies into developing their artistic talents. This Aries influence relies heavily for its proper expression on their level of maturity. If they fail to develop maturity, they may be grossly self-indulgent and wasteful. They are likely to possess strong competitive streaks which makes many of them sports enthusiasts as well as participants. Physical pleasures are pursued with enthusiasm. They relish good food and drink, friends and good times, and have a good sense of humor.

HOUSE 6

The sixth house describes your job, daily responsibilities

(paid and unpaid), and those who work for or with you. It also represents your health, and physical fitness.

TAURUS on 6th HOUSE

♉ on 6th

Taurus ruling the sixth house indicates individuals who prefer jobs that involve working either with a partner or a number of co-workers. Negative potentials for Taurus on the sixth house can include individuals who may be too lazy to work and drift from one job to another, finding something wrong with every one, creating excuses to quit. Individuals with Taurus on the sixth house find it difficult to work efficiently, if at all, when their efforts are not appreciated, or there is continuous disharmony and confrontation. They work well in physically comfortable environments. They are likely to meet their marriage partner through their job. They are usually pet fanciers and their animals are likely to be well-trained and cared for. These individuals often pursue health and fitness programs and may even become professionally involved in this type of work. They also find occupations as florists and in public relations, agriculture, banking, investment and finance, or some phase of the beauty industry.

HOUSE 7

The seventh house relates to marriage and partnership or joint ventures of any kind. It describes how you interact with people and how others tend to regard you. The seventh house is associated with legal matters, negotiations, contracts, and all open confrontations, pleasant as well as adversarial.

TAURUS on 7th HOUSE

♉ on 7th

Taurus ruling the seventh house indicates individuals who are apt to be outgoing and people-oriented. Without constant exposure to others they can become withdrawn and unmotivated because they depend on such interactions for inspiration and feedback. They may prefer doing most things in partnership, and their success in life is often a direct result of their cooperation with or through the influence of other people. The influence of Taurus implies a strong element of trust in their association with others, and that they derive much pleasure and enjoyment from marriage. It also indicates that marriage, business partnerships, and relations with others in general, should be fairly stable and enduring. The negative potential for Taurus on the seventh house indicates individuals who have difficulty finding the right partner, as well as those who possess antisocial attitudes or engender such feelings in others. The influence of Taurus on the seventh house implies individuals who want to use whatever people skills they possess in a practical way. As a result, many of them become lawyers, contract negotiators, agents or counselors.

HOUSE 8

The eighth house is related to taxes, debt, death, legacies, and the income you receive through marriage or business partner(s). It describes your resourcefulness, and your ability to develop and use material assets as well as personal skills and abilities. The eighth house also indicates sexual attitudes and behavior.

CANCER on 8th HOUSE

♋ on 8th

Cancer ruling the eighth house indicates individuals who know exactly what they want and will go about satisfying their desires with remarkable tenaciousness. They are not likely to be glib or open about emotional needs, though when they are sure a particular situation is well in hand, they can be brutally frank and explicit about what they want. Others may find it difficult to fathom their true emotions, especially since they can appear to be emotionally satisfied even when they are not. They are apt to have instinctual responses and may come to rely on their intuition in handling finances and other resources. They may be attracted to mysteries, the occult, and the arcane. Though the Cancerian influence on the eighth house suggests the strong possibility of inheritance, it is just as strongly evident that their family and family connections may be among their most valuable resources. They are very vulnerable in matters of sex and romance, but there is potential for great strength as well as selfishness, so in many cases, they give as good as they get.

SUN in 8th HOUSE

☉ in 8th

Sun in the eighth house indicates those whose ego is bound to their sense of self-worth. Having little if any urge for self-promotion for its own sake, they do things to satisfy themselves, not to impress others. They may have talent for handling resources and material assets. No matter what they gain from other sources, it is the development and use of their own talent and skills that give them the independence and success they desire. They tend to look deeper, to go beyond the obvious, and to explore the mysteries of man and nature. Family connections or legacies, as well as the absence of these things, can play a significant part in the shaping of their life and desires.

SUN opposite MOON

Sun opposite Moon indicates those apt to have a hard time separating their egos from their emotions; often failing to recognize that something (or someone) they want may simply represent ego involvement instead of emotional commitment. What they are called upon (or driven) to do may often interfere with what gives them emotional satisfaction, or they chase after their desires while their talents and skills are wasted or remain undeveloped.

SUN square SATURN

Sun square Saturn indicates those likely to be quite successful in life, if only because they have learned how to handle the obstacles in their paths that nearly always seem to show up. Overnight success is not the rule here, but success usually is. They may have great expectations of themselves and confidence in what they can do, but disappointments can cause them to develop low expectations about others or what others will do. They are ambitious and ready to try anything to obtain their goals.

MERCURY in 8th HOUSE

Mercury in the eighth house indicates those apt to give a lot of thought to the mysteries of life, and likely to come up with some ideas of their own on this subject. Many have interest in the occult and other arcane matters, psychological and psychic phenomena, and planes of existence beyond physical reality. Mercury's influence also leads to interest or work in the stock market and commodity investments, tax or insurance matters, or in handling the financial affairs of others. The negative potential of this Mercury house position can mean unfortunate circumstances related to any of these matters, or being constantly bogged down in details regarding them. It also indicates that they may spend more time talking and thinking about sex than they do participating in it. Satisfactory sexual experiences may require mental as well as physical stimulation.

Expressing their ideas and opinions is not apt to be a way of merely passing the time, and they may be secretive regarding information or knowledge they possess. They are serious-minded and do not enjoy pointless small talk, though they do not always resist the temptation to engage in interesting gossip.

MERCURY conjunct MARS

Whatever the depth of their intellects, those with Mercury conjunct Mars are sure to be strong and active in promoting their thoughts. They very much want to put ideas into action, and have little patience if they have to deal too much with mere theory. They are often physically active as well as mentally alert, always running here and there on one errand or another. They are likely to possess above average mechanical or technical skills.

MERCURY conjunct JUPITER

Mercury conjunct Jupiter indicates those who may or may not seek to attain advanced degrees but sooner or later get caught up in expanding their consciousness and improving their intellectual horizons on some level. Their disposition toward communicating with others is generous, and they are happy to share ideas and information, though they may tend to attach too great of an importance to their own thoughts and opinions at times.

MERCURY trine SATURN

Mercury trine Saturn implies those with stable minds, common sense, and a correct sense of timing. They have organizational and administrative abilities, and are apt to wander effortlessly into many situations in life in which they can use their intellectual and communicative skills to great advantage. Understanding structure and purpose is among their most valuable intellectual assets.

MERCURY square URANUS

When it comes to expressing ideas, the thoughts generated by those with Mercury Uranus are either futuristic concepts or center around the past. This does not leave the success of their endeavors in jeopardy, but can cause confusion in trying to get projects off the ground when those around them believe they are too far ahead of the times or too far behind. They are apt to be clever and original thinkers. One of their complaints is having to look after boring details, and one of their problems is keeping track of papers and information no matter how organized they are.

MERCURY trine NEPTUNE

Mercury trine Neptune indicates individuals apt to have outstanding intuitions, vivid imaginations, and keen intellects. However, they must be careful not to take things for granted or their intellectual and artistic gifts may be wasted, their spirituality become nothing more than hollow tradition, and their psychic sensitivities never realized or developed. Many of these individuals have the faith healer's gift though they may not all choose to call it or use it by this name.

MERCURY opposite PLUTO

Sharing information is not always to the liking of those with Mercury opposite Pluto unless they get something useful in return. There is always a power situation or impediment that blocks the free flow of information or knowledge they either give or receive. Some of these individuals behave mysteriously or attempt to disguise their knowledge or true motives. Consciously or subconsciously they seek to use knowledge to gain control, rather than personal growth.

MARS in 8th HOUSE

♂ in 8th

Mars in the eighth house indicates those with intense energy and stamina. Where they focus their energy is not determined solely by Mars in the eighth house, but there is likely to be a certain aggressiveness and concentrated energy connected with almost everything they do. They are sure to have very specific desires and no hesitation about trying to gratify them. They may be secretive or circumspect in their movements and activities, or give that kind of impression. The negative potential includes those who are deeply possessive or vengeful. The influence of Mars suggests an active sex life, intense feelings concerning sexual matters and toward the opposite sex. Many of these individuals develop remarkable ability to understand sexuality from a psychological as well as physical point of view, and to do research or counseling in this field. They are usually physically resourceful, and have talent for doing more than one thing extremely well. They are likely to possess mechanical and/or artistic skills that are especially valuable in renovation and remodeling.

MARS conjunct JUPITER

Mars conjunct Jupiter indicates those with much energy and enthusiasm in their natures. Depending on the other factors in their personalities and backgrounds, their enthusiasm may be directed to increase their own importance or turned to philanthropic endeavors or perhaps both. Overestimation and impatience are problems, but the intelligence and grandness of spirit they often exhibit is very inspiring. Publishing, promotion, and cultural pursuits are major attractions.

MARS trine SATURN

Those with Mars trine Saturn are apt to have the good fortune to be taken care of or given valuable assistance by older people or those in authority. Saturn's influence is rarely subtle and attempts at self promotion may be transparent, but the implication here is that their ploys are usually tolerated. This is a survival aspect and no matter the hardships imposed, these individuals usually manage to cope better than most.

MARS square URANUS

Those with Mars square Uranus are bound to have a quirk or two. They veer from the traditional path from time to time, or perhaps make a lifetime project of seeking unusual or alternative life styles. They are willful and independent, and even those who settle down to marriage and regular jobs may grow restless and unhappy if too much confinement or control is imposed.

MARS trine NEPTUNE

Even if they possess a harder side more in tune with reality, there is also a certain mellow, philosophical, or spiritual sense in how they think and conduct themselves. They are attracted to people and situations that appear glamorous, sensuous, or uplifting in one way or another. Artistically talented with astute intuitions, they often have the good fortune to be in the right place at the right time and know exactly what to do, or as the case may be, what not to do.

MARS opposite PLUTO

Mars opposite Pluto indicates those who are often confronted with renewal or renovation in some form. Either literally or figuratively, they have to develop inner resourcefulness and whatever intellectual or physical skills they possess in order to meet the challenges in life. A constant frustration may be in having to always deal with what is irrelevant in order to be allowed to deal with what is relevant. Those who learn the futility of trying to directly confront those with more power are the ones who successfully attain their goals.

JUPITER in 8th HOUSE

♃ in 8th

Jupiter in the eighth house indicates those who feel that a vital part of their independence (and importance) as an individual depends on making the most of their material and non-material resources. They may be very interested in the stock market, handle investments for others, or be involved with taxes, insurance, and estate planning. Jupiter in the eighth house is also an implication of remarkable recuperative powers. The potential involves more than recovery from physical illness, it includes emotional upheavals, financial setbacks and other disappointments or failures. Eighth house Jupiter refers to the possibility of a wealthy marriage partner, but it also implies that their partner's income may be derived through writing, publishing, politics, law, foreign trade, or education. The negative potential is that the expansiveness and optimism of Jupiter can mean wasted resources and the accumulation of monumental debt.

JUPITER trine SATURN

Jupiter trine Saturn implies luck, but it is a generational aspect. While many of those born with this fortunate planetary influence are successful, their personal success will have to be supported by other factors in their personalities and backgrounds. Conditions in society are favorable for them, enabling most of them to be at least moderately successful, while many others without this aspect, for example, may be unemployed, or unsuitable in some way for the demands of the current conditions.

JUPITER square URANUS

Jupiter square Uranus is a generational aspect and whether or not individuals personally agree with it, their generation is opposed to traditional thoughts and ideological trends. They are deliberately confrontational and stubbornly entrenched in antagonistic modes. The direction of fashions, politics, religion, philosophy and every societal institution they influence, is reversed. Liberal trends become conservative, and conservatism is overthrown for a new liberalism.

JUPITER trine NEPTUNE

Jupiter trine Neptune implies a generational devotion to inspirational influences. Religion enjoys new interest and participation, fantasy and imagination are tolerated where it might once have been ridiculed. However, this so-called fortunate aspect can also produce a deadly fanaticism that breeds hate and fosters intolerance.

JUPITER opposite PLUTO

Jupiter opposite Pluto is a generation aspect that implies intense power struggles. The order of the day in a society laboring under this aspect is plots and counter plots, intrigue within intrigue. Suspicion, abuse of power, and intrigue may not actually describe the individual character or touch the personal affairs of individuals born with this aspect, but their lives may nevertheless be influenced in some way by the effect this atmosphere has on society in general.

HOUSE 9

The ninth house describes higher education, advanced training, publishing, publicity, advertising, politics, foreign travel, foreign studies, religious and philosophical views and activities, and cultural pursuits. It relates to court decisions, a second marriage, and in-laws. To a certain extent the ninth house also describes the job or health of your mother.

LEO on 9th HOUSE

♌ on 9th

Leo ruling the ninth house indicates those with egos that need to find expression in communication, higher education, religion, or a combination of these things. Though their thinking may not always follow traditional lines, there are strong philosophical and spiritual tendencies in them and in their backgrounds. They may reside for a time, or be born or educated in a foreign country. Politics, publishing, journalism, and advertising are areas likely to attract them. International travel is more than just entertainment or a broadening experience. It can present them with a whole new direction in their lives. If circumstances never present the opportunity to leave their home towns they may nevertheless find outlets in cultural activities, and social or religious work. The negative potential can mean individuals who are bombastic, morally righteous, or pseudo intellectuals. Though they may be too impressed with wealth and status, the reverse can also occur making them disdain anything or anyone with wealth or status. The positive side of this influence produces philanthropic individuals who generously share their monetary assets as well their talent and intellect.

VENUS in 9th HOUSE

♀ in 9th

Venus in the ninth house indicates those who are culturally oriented, spiritually inspired, and philosophically inclined. They often develop idealistic notions regarding social structures. However, if there are no negative factors in their personality or background to interfere, most of them strike a balance between their ideals and practical reality. They like to think of themselves as citizens of the world, and indeed, they often fit this description. Many of them seek positions in writing, broadcasting, advertising, and higher education. The influence of Venus suggests potential for romance, marriage, partnership and joint ventures in foreign countries or with those of a different nationality or race. The negative potential can mean anti-social attitudes, difficulty with in-laws, and unfavorable court judgments. It also implies difficulty obtaining advanced degrees and specialized training.

VENUS sextile SATURN

Venus sextile Saturn indicates those likely to find their unselfish sacrifices are rewarded when their altruism in helping others unexpectedly produces valuable opportunities for themselves. Opportunities may also be gained through those who are older or more mature. This aspect is frequently an indication of musical talent or skills in architecture and design.

VENUS opposite NEPTUNE

Venus opposite Neptune indicates potential for disintegration of social and romantic relationships. These individuals can form distorted ideas about people and must take care in voicing their opinions. They may attract the society of people addicted to drugs or alcohol. In relationships they are easily victimized, and in turn may as easily become victimizers. Sensitivity, clear thinking, and maturity are needed at all times.

HOUSE 10

The tenth house describes your career and other long-range goals, public reputation, superiors and those in authority. It also relates to your father and his influence in your life.

VIRGO on 10th HOUSE

♍ on 10th

Virgo ruling the tenth house indicates the likelihood of those who want their thoughts and ideas conveyed to the public. Even if they don't seek public attention for themselves, they do want a public forum in which to communicate what they think, or in which to put their ideas into public practice. They may, for example, do this by writing speeches for others or becoming city planners or engineers. The strongest possibilities however, are those who reach their public as teachers, lecturers, trainers, writers, clerics, or physical fitness instructors. They also enjoy carrying on mental pursuits in public places, or in a public manner like engaging in chess matches in the park or writing letters to the editors of newspapers. A tenth house Virgo influence is also an indication they may have more than one career, or there is something of a dual-natured quality connected with what they do. The negative potential can mean difficulty establishing lines of communication with the father or authority figures in general, or it can be hard to effectively establish their own authority. The positive side of this influence is the inspiration to make the world a better place.

HOUSE 11

The eleventh house rules friendships, organizations to which you belong, and income derived from self-employment or career (as opposed to wages earned from a job). It relates to the role you play in the lives of others as child, parent, lover, spouse, friend, social or business associate. The eleventh house also describes your hopes and aspirations and capacity for happiness.

LIBRA on 11th HOUSE

♎ on 11th

Libra ruling the eleventh house indicates individuals with social orientations. However, because Libra is the sign that imposes balance, it means they will have to find a balance between friends and other areas of their life, as well as a balance within their individual friendships. In the first instance it means that while friends are important, these relationships should not interfere with other things these individuals need to accomplish and the relationships and responsibilities they have to their homes and families. In the second instance, it means that friendships should be equal partnerships. The potential of Libra's influence also suggests the possibility they will marry a friend, and that they tend to remain good friends with romantic partners even after the romance ends. It also implies that when exhibiting artistic or creative skills, they enjoy being part of a group as much or more than being a one-man-show. The negative potential can mean antisocial attitudes, rudeness, and the tendency to provoke or participate in arguments and open confrontations.

SATURN in 11th HOUSE

♄ in 11th

Saturn in the eleventh house indicates heavy responsibilities related to the role that they play in the lives of others, especially friends, children (not necessarily their biological offspring), and others who make up their personal network. Saturn's influence does not imply lack of such people in their life, and indeed, they may enjoy solid, long-lasting relationships with them. However, these individuals may tend to harbor the notion that they are friendless and unappreciated. They may have an aversion or little motivation to join societies. Those who become a member of a club are often handed extra responsibilities. Saturn suggests that income or promotion from their career may be very limited or delayed. The father is apt to have few assets, and, if he has wealth, it may be of little use to them. Real happiness and enjoyment will be hard won, and perhaps not achieved until later in life.

SATURN trine NEPTUNE

Saturn trine Neptune is a generational aspect that indicates widespread and generous public support for cultural establishments and artistic groups and organizations. There is increased tolerance for minority groups and renewed interest and support for handicapped, underprivileged and institutionalized people. Individuals born in this generation are apt to have careers or private activities that are involved in these areas.

SATURN sextile PLUTO

Saturn sextile Pluto is a generational aspect that implies a society that is given the motivation and opportunities to make more efficient use of natural resources, though it does not indicate with certainty that such efforts will be successful. However, attempts to arouse public concern in such matters is usually successful.

HOUSE 12

The twelfth house describes the private and hidden side of life; your subconscious mind, dreams, the past, and those who wish you harm or work against your interests. The twelfth house relates to sorrow, disappointment, loss, solitude or confinement, hidden fears and worry. It also has connection with the job or health of your marriage or business partner.

SCORPIO on 12th HOUSE

♏ on 12th

Scorpio ruling the twelfth house indicates the likelihood of individuals who participate in or investigate secret activities or organizations. It also suggests an unconscious need to be powerful, effective individuals. Those who have positions of personal power would not particularly want others to know the source of that power. Scorpio suggests the likelihood of being alert to subconscious levels of thought and existence, dreams, the occult, and spiritualism. Those who actively pursue these interests however, may tend to keep their knowledge to themselves unless others factors in their personalities support a more extroverted demonstration or use of occult or arcane subjects. Another potential under Scorpio's influence on the twelfth house is the desire to keep hidden knowledge of their assets and resources. Others may know or at least be able to estimate something of the obvious income or assets of these individuals, but they enjoy having all kinds of material and nonmaterial resources of which no one else is aware.
