Together We Are The Church

Christ Lutheran Church Newsletter

Aloha Kakou,

Ash Wednesday worship with the Imposition of Ashes and communion on March 1st begins the Forty Days of Lent, a time of reflection and contemplation upon the life and death of Jesus, our Christ/Messiah. Lent ends with Holy Week, in which we remember and ritually relive the betrayal, arrest and crucifixion of Jesus on Good Friday and in which we pause on Holy Saturday to ponder who we are and whose we are.

Resurrection brings Lent to its end with Easter Sunday and new beginnings in the life of the Crucified One arisen from the dead.

Often in this season we talk about what we are “giving up for Lent.” More recently we talk about what we are going to positively do, not just negatively give up. I wonder sometimes if either one is really helpful in a Lenten exercise of discipline.

We live in a busy world – on the Busy Isle! – and reflection and contemplation are rare commodities in our over-commodified world. For Lent I personally am thinking of “giving up” busyness (at least as much as I dare) and taking up reflection and contemplation (again, as much as I dare).

I invite you to consider joining me in my Lenten endeavor, especially on Wednesday evenings in Lent. Beginning March 8th, we start with a simple Lenten soup supper, jointly with the good people of Joy of Christ Lutheran Church, followed by quiet reflection on scripture and prayer.

I hope to see you there.
