FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

“Teacher, this woman was caught in the act of adultery. In the Law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?” They were using this question as a trap, in order to have a basis for accusing him. But Jesus bent down and started to write on the ground with his finger. When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let any one of you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” ✚

CATHOLIC VIEWS ON CONSECRATION

While this state of affairs may surprise Protestants, it reflects the Catholic Church's understanding of the Eucharist. The Church teaches that the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ at the consecration and that Christ is present "body and blood, soul and divinity" in both items. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church notes:

Since Christ is sacramentally present under each of the species, communion under the species of bread alone makes it possible to receive all the fruit of Eucharistic grace. For pastoral reasons this manner of receiving communion has been legitimately established as the most common form in the Latin rite.

THE DIOCESE OF SALT LAKE CITY

The Diocese of Salt Lake City comprises the entire state of Utah and is home to over 300,000 Catholics, 48 churches, 20 missions, 3 chapels, 5 stations, 3 Newman Centers, a monastery, our cathedral and 16 Catholic schools.

A LITTLE SUNDAY HUMOR!

Provided by: Steve M.

My wife and I have a perfect understanding. I don't try to run her life, and I don't try to run mine! 😊

Most people don't think I'm as old as I am until they hear me stand up! 😊

I really don't mind getting older, but my body's taking it badly! 😊

As I watch this generation rewrite history one thing I'm sure of, it will be misspelled and have no punctuation! 😊

All men make mistakes, but married men find out about them sooner. 😊
