Pentecost Sunday

8 June 2025
1 Corinthians 3:16-17
Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?

Pastor—Allegra Hoots, MDIV

Dear Friends,

Greetings to you in the mighty and holy name of the Lord Jesus Christ, our blessed Redeemer. As always, I trust God that this message will find you in good health, rejoicing in the Lord, and experiencing the peace of Christ that surpasses all human understanding.

When most of you receive this message, June 8, the Day of Pentecost, will be upon us. Pentecost is a sacred moment in the life of the Church—a time to celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, just as the disciples experienced in Acts 2. It marks the birth of the Church and the beginning of its mission to proclaim the gospel to all nations.

As United, like many other congregations, observes this holy day, this month's newsletter message is dedicated to acknowledging, celebrating, and proclaiming the work of the Holy Spirit—not only in the early Church but in our lives today. The Spirit empowers, renews, and strengthens all who believe, guiding us in faith, worship, and service.

The Book of Confessions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) provides a powerful affirmation of faith that beautifully expresses our shared belief:

"We trust in God the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life. The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith, sets us free to accept ourselves and love God and neighbor, and binds us with all believers in the one body of Christ, the Church.

The same Spirit who inspired the prophets and apostles rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed, claims us in the waters of baptism, feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation, and calls women and men to all ministries of the Church.

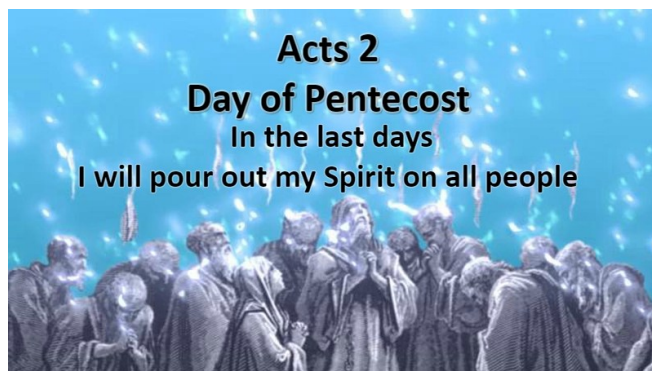

In a broken and fearful world, the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior, to unmask idolatries in Church and culture, to hear the voices of peoples long silenced, and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace.

In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit, we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God's new heaven and new earth, praying, 'Come, Lord Jesus!'

May we continue to seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit, trusting in His presence, power, and promise. As we celebrate Pentecost, may our hearts be renewed with faith, filled with joy, and strengthened for the work ahead.

Peace, love, and continued blessings,

Pastor Allegra

Living God, you sent the Holy Spirit to breathe life into your church. Let us no longer be captives to fear, but messengers of your saving love, so that all may be reconciled in you; through Jesus Christ, our peace.
John 20:19-23 Pentecost

Pentecost

We can think of Christmas as the birthday of Christ, but the birthday of the church is Pentecost. Pentecost is observed 50 days after Easter Sunday and commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and other followers of Jesus Christ.

The story of Pentecost is told in the Book of Acts.

Acts 2:1 When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. 2 Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. 4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

Roots in Jewish tradition:

The word “Pentecost” comes from the Greek word “pentekostē,” which means “fiftieth.” Pentecost has roots in a Jewish harvest festival called Shavuot, which also falls around the same time of year. Shavuot celebrates the giving of the Torah (the first five books of the Hebrew Bible) to Moses on Mount Sinai.

The story of Pentecost:

The story of Pentecost unfolds in the second chapter of Acts. Following Jesus’ ascension to heaven, the Apostles and other disciples gathered in Jerusalem for the Feast of Weeks (another name for Shavuot). Suddenly, a powerful wind filled the room, and tongues of fire appeared above the heads of each of them.

The Apostles were filled with the Holy Spirit, which gave them the ability to speak in different languages they had never learned before. This miracle allowed them to communicate with the diverse crowd of pilgrims who had come to Jerusalem from around the world.

Peter, one of Jesus’ disciples, spoke up:

Acts 2:22 “Fellow Israelites, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to you by miracles, wonders and signs, which God did among you through him, as you yourselves know. 23 This man was handed over to you by God’s deliberate plan and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked men, put him to death by nailing him to the cross. 24 But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him.

The meaning of Pentecost:

Pentecost marks the transition of the church from Jesus’s small band of followers to a full-fledged Christian movement. The Holy Spirit’s presence empowered the disciples to overcome their fear and boldly share the Gospel message.

Jesus promised his disciples that he would send a “helper” after his departure (John 14:16-17). The Holy Spirit which descended on them at Pentecost is that helper. Still today, the Holy Spirit empowers believers and guides us in sharing the Gospel message.

The events of Pentecost are remembered in church services at this special time through images of wind and fire. Many different sensory experiences have also been used to symbolize these elements over the years.

A Prayer for Pentecost

Lord God, through Christ you have given us peace that the world cannot give. Let your Spirit of truth abide with us so that we may live in hope, grow in faith, and keep your commandments of love; in the name of Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

Father's Day.

Happy
Father Day,

I pray that the Lord
showers you with His blessings and fills your heart with love, joy, and peace today and always.

A Message For My Father

*How can I find the words
To let you know how much I care?
To thank-you, Dad, for all you've done,
For always being there.*

*You've been friend as well as father,
Walking with me all through life,
Through the joy and through the laughter,
Through the heartache and the strife.*

*You're the best I could have hoped for,
And with gratitude I see...
The sweet lifetime of devotion,
You invested here in me.*

*I am proud that you're my father,
Thankful for the times we've had,
And with all that is within me,
I feel blessed that you're my Dad!*

BLESSINGS TO ALL FATHERS AND FATHER FIGURES

Have you considered a bequest to United Presbyterian Church?

Over 60% of U.S. adults have no estate planning documents in place.

It has been reported that every week about $100 million is left by people who die without a will.

Your greatest gift is often your legacy gift. People who have been blessed by the United Presbyterian Church have left legacy gifts through their estate. A bequest is one of the easiest gifts to make. As you create or update your will, trust, retirement plan or life insurance, you can specify that a gift goes to United Presbyterian Church.

Your generosity will make a difference in the lives of many individuals.

FIND CONTENTMENT IN ALL THE RIGHT PLACES

*I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture.
John 10:9 HCSB*

Where can you find contentment? Is it a result of wealth or power or beauty or fame? Hardly. Genuine contentment springs from a peaceful spirit, a clear conscience, and a loving heart (like yours!).

Our modern world seems preoccupied with the search for happiness. We are bombarded with messages telling us that happiness depends upon acquiring material possessions. These messages are false. Peace is not the result of our acquisitions; it is the result of our dispositions. If we don't find contentment within ourselves, we will never find it outside ourselves.

Thus, the search for contentment is an internal quest, an exploration of the heart, mind and soul. You can find contentment. Indeed, you will find it if you simply look in the right places. And the best time to start looking in those places is now.

Contentment is possible when we stop striving for more. ~ Charles Swindoll

PRAYER

Father. Let me be a faithful servant who strives to do Your will, and as I do, let me find contentment and balance. Let me live in the light of your will and your priorities for my life and when I have done my best, Lord, give me the wisdom to place my faith and my trust in you. Amen.

Prayers to Start Your Day. By Criswell Freeman

Presbyterians practice both adult and infant baptism.

Infant baptism expresses that it is God who chooses us for faith, discipleship, and salvation; without God, we have no power to claim these things for ourselves. However, we affirm that people come to faith at different stages in life, and recognize the baptism of older believers as an equally valid expression of the sacrament.

While pouring or sprinkling water upon the head is most common, Presbyterians also allow for baptism by immersion. Whatever the method, the deep significance of baptism demands a visible and generous use of water, conveying the lavish outpouring of God's grace, filling believers with the gifts of the Spirit, and overflowing in lives of faithfulness, service, and love.

A teaching elder—a pastor—must preside at the baptism, but it is a congregation's session (or ruling council) that authorizes baptisms and provides for the spiritual growth and nurture of members. That's why a ruling elder of the church always presents the candidate for baptism. In turn, both the family and the congregation promise to contribute to the baptized person's Christian formation.

United Presbyterian Church BUILDING FUND

As of 6/1/2025 the total collected is $14,128.82

14,128

The UPC administration committee wants to be certain all UPC members and friends are aware of the establishment of the Building Fund at UPC to which contributions can be made to help defray the cost of the maintenance of the facility which ensures the health and safety of the occupants of our facility.

This building fund originated in 2021. Our facility was built in 1952 and, despite our faithful maintenance efforts, the facility is showing the signs of 71 years of wear and tear. The performance of our investment accounts, collection of rental fees and the faithful and generous giving of our members and friends have provided the funds for our maintenance.

Our maintenance costs, however, are mounting to a point where we need to continue our appeal to the generosity of our church community and friends. Whether a UPC member or a friend of United, we ask that you prayerfully consider contributing to the Building Fund, where 100% of your contribution will be dedicated to defraying the cost of accomplishing United's goal of ensuring a healthy and safe facility.

Contributions to the Building Fund are welcome anytime and may be accomplished in the following ways:

1. Sending a check, made out to the United Presbyterian Church of Plainfield, to Treasurer, 525 East Front Street, Plainfield, New Jersey 07060 with "Building Fund" written in the memo section of the check.

PENTECOST

Today is the second biggest feast in the Church year! Pentecost is when the Holy Spirit came to the disciples and the Church was formed. The Apostles went out and began to preach the Gospel and baptize thousands of people, receiving them into the new Church.

The Holy Spirit is God. He is the third Person of the Holy Trinity, after the Father and the Son. Before Jesus came to earth, the Holy Spirit inspired the men who wrote the Old Testament part of the Bible. It was the Holy Spirit who brought baby Jesus to the world through Mary. Jesus told His followers that He would send the Holy Spirit to them after He went up into Heaven.

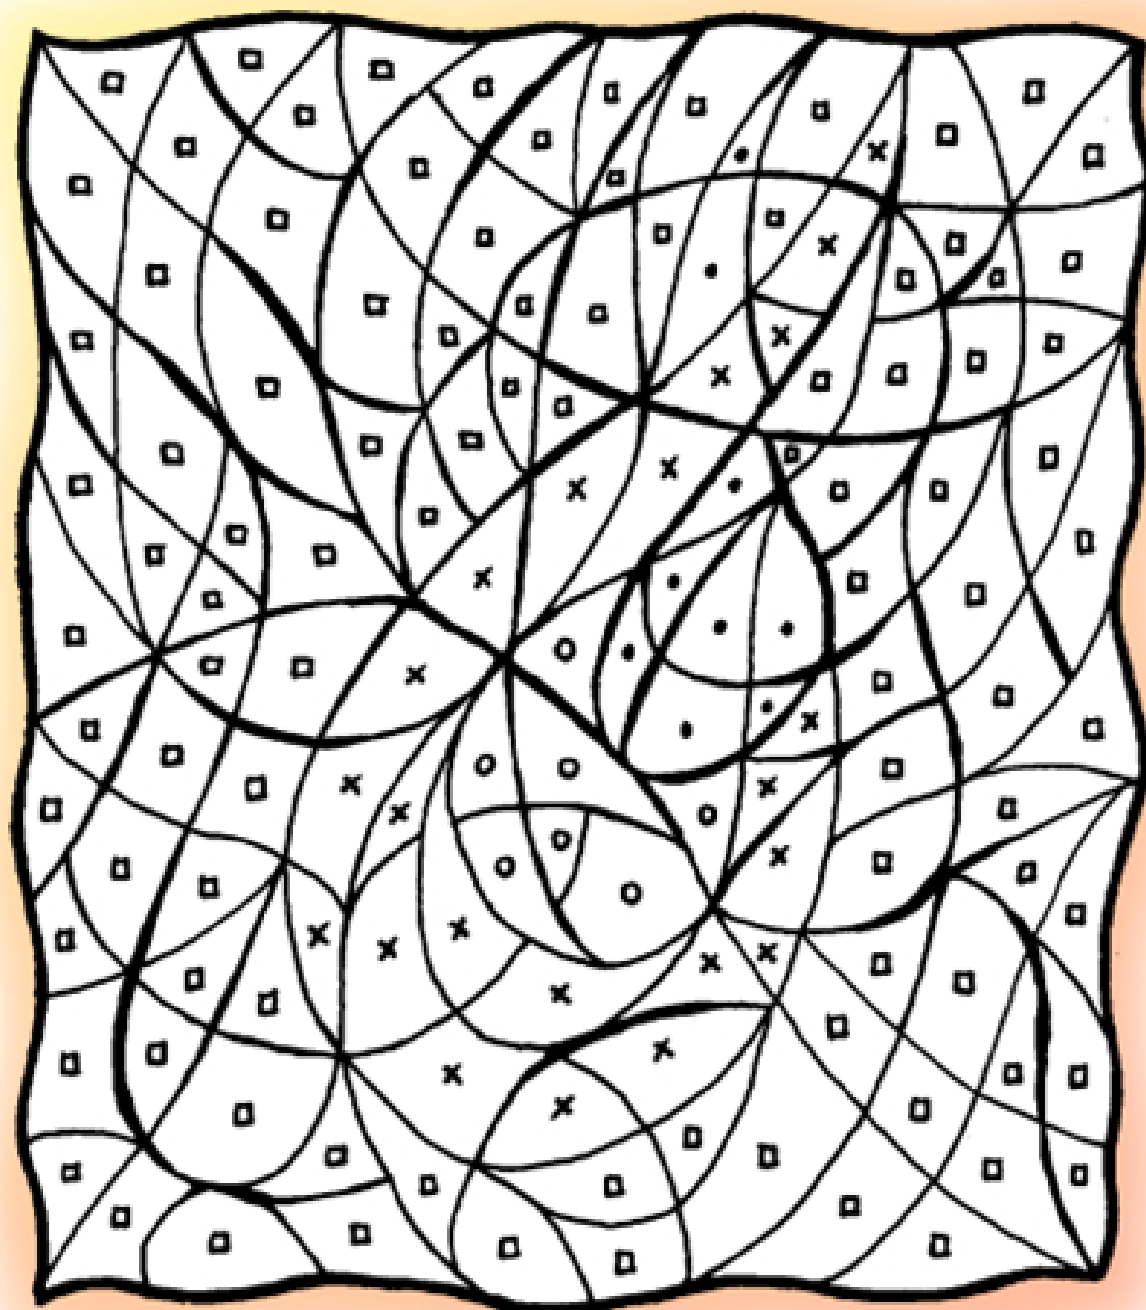

We all need the Holy Spirit. We can't do anything by ourselves. The Holy Spirit gives us the strength we need to do good. Did you know that we wouldn't even pray if the Holy Spirit didn't inspire us to?

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever! Amen.
