

CARL D. JARRETT

1937 - 1996

Carl D. Jarrett, 58, a resident of Bay Port from 1980 to 1977, died at his home in Sterling, Ohio on Jan. 19, following a four-month illness.

He was born on April 21, 1937 in Morgan County, Ind. He was married to Catherine Jarrett until April 1984. In November, 1985, he married his current wife Barb, and lived in Sterling where he has been a resident since leaving Michigan in 1977.

While living in Bay Port, he was very active in baseball, coaching his sons in Little League, Pony League and Babe Ruth. He enjoyed snowmobiling, hunting and fishing. Since moving to Ohio in 1977, he continued to work for Central Soya until 1985 when he joined Karl Feeds. Recently, he had his own feed distributorship called C & B Feed and Supply.

Surviving is his mother Pauline and brother Jerry, both living in Indiana; his first wife Catherine; their five children, Karen, David, Randy, Mike, and Suzy; five grandchildren; his second wife, Barb; three stepchildren; and five stepgrandchildren.

Those wishing to offer memorials are invited to consider Hospice of Wooster, Ohio.
