CHARACTER BREAKDOWN

Jay: He is fifteen "and a half" years old. The death of his mother forces him to be more mature than he is ready to be.

Arty: Jay's younger brother, he is 13 "and a half" years old. More of an observer than the rest of his family, he often goes with the flow of things, but also can be a little childish.

Bella: Jay's thirty-five-year-old aunt. She is sometimes a bit off-center and is mentally challenged, but despite this she is also loving and protective of her nephews.

Louie: Jay's flamboyant, jovial uncle, in his late 30s, who comes to live with the family when he is hiding from the local mob. He has a strong, mercurial nature, and a certain underlying dark side.

Grandma Kurnitz: *This role has been pre-cast

Eddie: Jay's middle-aged father. After the death of his wife, he is forced to send his two sons to live with their grandmother, while he repays his large financial debts.

Gert: Jay's aunt, and Grandma's daughter. She is a very interesting addition to the family. Her most noticeable issue is that when she breathes she has a tendency to suck in while still speaking.

If you are unable to attend the audition on the 13th, please, email us at broadwayvista@gmail.com and the director will try to set up an alternate time. WEB SITE: www.broadwayvista.biz
