Course Description:

This Non-Language Specific Three (3) credit hour course will familiarize today's Interpreter with many of the common terms and meanings associated with arguably the most polarizing topic in today's society – Assault Weapons. The Interpreter will become acquainted with current and varied terminology related to the use and description of currently used an available assault weapons and associated components. Learn the meanings and uses for such words as "AK-47", "AR-15", "Upper and Lower", "Fully Auto", "Burst Mode" and many other terms and phrases brought into the courtroom environment on a daily basis. Through a combination of provided video resources, self-guided terminology, word matching, and a question and answer exam, the language professional can expect to gain a better understanding as to terminology and descriptions used in today's society.
