Virtual Gym 5000, Fitness & Energy

Next Generation Technology for Obesity and Health Enhancement with Therapeutic Complex Waveforms for Organ and body Tuning

HEALTH AND FITNESS – PROFESSIONAL USE

16 channels and twenty -our complex waveforms with up to 4,000 waveforms each. Proprietary technology built in London University by the Co-inventor of the first pacemaker designed to resonate the motor nerve signal and simulate strenuous physical exercise that can only be performed by professional athletes. It features 8 seconds full body contractions with minimum rest time, that involve large body muscles working simultaneously, abdomen, buttocks, legs, arms chest. With this unique technology your grandmother can exercise at the rate of a professional athlete who has spent his entire life in physical training.

One-hour treatment is worth one month in the gym because during one-hour treatment you have 144 different exercises with contractions lasting for up to 8 secs for 1000 times.

Virtual Gym is appropriate for Obesity, Visceral Fat reduction, Fatty Liver relief and enhancing core strength, speed and stamina for Athletes.

It has been effectively used on sports injury and pain.
