

PHYLLIS M. BOLTON

1923 - 1995

Phyllis Jane Morse Bolton, 72 of Richmond, Va. and formerly of Sand Point, died of cancer on May 15.

She was born Feb. 9 1923 in Rahway, N.J., to Robert Edgar and Wanda Constance (Baur) Morse. She was a descendant of Emil Gottlob Baur, a found of the Ora Labora Colony at Wildowl Bay. Mrs. Bolton donated many photographs and papers to the Pigeon Historical Society.

She moved to the Bay Port Area as a child with her parents. She graduated from Bay Port High School in 1940 and continued her education at Michigan State University, majoring in home economics.

After marriage to William Burch Bolton II, they moved to Richmond, Va., where she was employed as a laboratory technician at a pharmaceutical company. Upon retiring, they moved to Sand Point, and she was employed at the former Progress-Advance as receptionist. They returned to Richmond in 1989.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William, on Jan. 9, 1995, and a sister, Joan Gault.

Surviving are a son, William B. Bolton III; a granddaughter, Krista Anne Bolton; a daughter, Laura Lou Allen (Dudley), all of Richmond; a sister, Eleanor Todd, Sparta; and two brothers, Robert Morse of California, and James Morse of Arizona.

Cremation has already taken place. A family memorial service will be held in Caseville in August.
