Rachel Park Dance Center to hold master class with performer/choreographer Brea Perdue

Middleboro – Brea has trained with and assisted some of the top teachers and choreographers in the country, including Mia Michaels, Stacey Tookey, John Crutchman, Dee Caspary and with Doug Caldwell, at his Broadway Dance Center intensives. Touring with regional ballet companies, and performing with choreographer, Dan Karaty (N'Sync, So You Think You Can Dance), Brea is well-versed in all forms of dance. She has established a name for herself as a highly skilled dancer and choreographer, taking her own performances (as well as her students) to the next level.

Brea can be seen in Disney hits, such as Teen Beach Movie, High School Musical and Shake it Up. She has danced in numerous commercials and industrials, appeared in the off-Broadway show “Break the Floor” and was also a semi-finalist on Season 2 of FOX’S hit television show, “So You Think You Can Dance.” In addition, Brea has performed in numerous parades and shows at Walt Disney World. Recently, Brea has joined Revel Dance Convention’s faculty. Her unique choreography keeps Brea in high demand throughout the country, where she teaches workshops and choreography at dance intensives. She also choreographs for dance companies throughout the U.S.
