Some more of the line.
We were obviously a very relaxed group.

Not sure what Preston Cluff is pointing at but Mike & Janet Kumm as well as Jean & Clarice LeRoy appear to be interested.

Is Michael Kumm showing off his military map skills to his wife, Janet? Or, is he simply trying to remember them....

Inside Elvis Presley's Mansion.

The living room with the music room behind it?

The master bedroom?

Possibly the main staircase?
If not, at least the chandelier is humongous.

A silver punchbowl set.

The dining room.

A chinaware cabinet.

A close-up of one corner of the formal dining room.

[I'm sure that the three items on the bottom shelf are Japanese. JimW]

A closer view of a place setting.

The very “modest” kitchen.

Another view of the kitchen.

Not sure what one might call this room.
The bar? The Relaxation room?
Or, the “Hang Out” room.

No need to select a channel-- just watch them all.

A close-up of the monkey.

Heavily curtained--perhaps a music listening room?

This appears to be the same room, so perhaps it was just a recreation room?

Even the ceiling appears to be sound-proofed.

Even the ceiling appears to be sound-proofed.

Note the dragon motif on the arms.

Another piece of over-stuffed furniture but with different carvings on the arms.

Someone mut have liked pandas.
