

DELORES C. (DEE) FLEMING

1936-1998

Delores C. (Dee) Fleming, 62 of Merrill and with local relatives, passed away Monday, Nov. 9, 1998, at Covenant Health Care System-Cooper Campus after a long illness.

She was born June 6, 1936, in Winsor Township near Pigeon, daughter of Joseph and Mary Wolfram.

She and John Fleming were married Nov. 21, 1964.

Mrs. Fleming was a member of St. Patrick Catholic Church, Ryan, and its Altar Society, the Knights of Columbus Auxiliary No. 2291, the League of Catholic Women and the National Council of Catholic Women. She also was a religious education teacher for many years.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, John A. (Deborah) Fleming III of St. Charles and Robert Fleming of Merrill; five daughters, Patricia (Joseph) Preston of Saginaw, Pamela (Judson) Corey of Chesaning, Nancy Fleming of Caro, Mary Fleming and Sara Fleming, both of Merrill; seven grandchildren; one brother, Ronald (Carmen) Wolfram of Pigeon; one sister, Julie Wolfram of Pigeon, and many nieces, nephews and aunts. She was preceded in death by one brother, Robert Wolfram.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, Nov. 12 at St. Patrick Catholic Church, Ryan, with Sr. Elaine Raymond and Rev. T.J. Fleming, officiated, with burial in St. Patrick Cemetery.

Arrangements were handled by the W.L. Case and Co. Funeral Chapel in Merrill.

Memorials may be made to the Jonesfield-Lakefield Township Volunteer Fire-rescue Department or the American Diabetes Association.