

Angels - Song by Father Ephraim

January 9th, 2024

Angels- Song by Father Ephraim, sung by Father Ephraim, Mother Clare and Sister Anna

Father Ephraim: You seen my-

Mother Clare: Go!

Father Ephraim: 3,2, - He begins playing his guitar and begins singing, "Now I go to bed."

Father Ephraim: That is high- He continues singing. "Angels by my head."

Father Ephraim: You remember it? "Now I lay me down to sleep."

Mother Clare: No.

Father Ephraim: Well sing, honey. He keeps singing- "Angels watching over me."

Mother Clare begins singing with Father Ephraim: "Over me."

Mother Clare and Father Ephraim keep singing.

Mother Clare stops singing but Father Ephraim continues, singing "Jesus in my heart."

Father Ephraim keeps singing but tells Mother Clare: I need your voice for the high parts.

Mother Clare begins singing.

Father Ephraim: Help us out, Anna.

Sister Anna begins singing with Mother Clare: "Jesus, in my heart."

Father Ephraim starts saying the lyrics: "Loved one, hold me near."

Mother Clare and Sister Anna sing: "Hold me near."

Father Ephraim: "Greet me in the morning."

Mother Clare and Sister Anna sing: "Greet me in the morning."

Father Ephraim: This is where it goes up high.

Mother Clare: Mm.

Father Ephraim, Mother Clare and Sister Anna continue to sing.

Father Ephraim: And then you go on to Father-

Mother Clare: Go ahead.

Father Ephraim: You know, Spirit, Holy Spirit- It is just a lullaby, so it is a-

Mother Clare: Clean shirt, thank you.

Father Ephraim: In the round. I do not remember the words.

Mother Clare: So, I have the words.

Father Ephraim: Ok. Well, take a break! Let us take a chill pill.

Sister Anna: Chill pill.
