

ANH VO
Lifetime Achievement Award

- Philanthropist; owner of Cindi's NY Delicatessen, Restaurant & Bakery
- In the 70s, escaped Vietnam with family on a small boat; embraced "American dream"

As a fun way for us to learn about you, please answer these questions.

Q. One thing on your bucket list?

A. Trip to the Holy Land of Israel

Q. Last book you read?

A. The Sympathizer by Viet Thanh Nguyen

Q. Last movie you saw?

A. Always Be My Maybe

Q. Your favorite hobby?

A. Dancing with my husband (Cha Cha Cha, Rhumba, Waltz...)

Q. What is one thing people would be surprised to know about you?

A. I am terrified of public speaking, but I have to do it from time to time

Q. Favorite meal?

A. Bun Bo Hue (Spicy Vietnamese Noodle Soup)

Q. Favorite music?

A. Classical music

Q. First job?

A. I helped my mom sell fabric at her store Vietnam starting at age 13

Q. Favorite animal?

A. Dogs of course.

Q. What is the favorite thing about your career?

A. Working with my Cindi's family, and making our customers happy and satisfied

Q. What makes you laugh the most?

A. Chatting with my grandsons who are a hoot.

Q. What is your proudest accomplishment?

A. Living the American Dream-leaving communist Vietnam in the 70s with nothing and building this great life for my family and my extended Cindi's family.