Dan Charles discussed Work Day items:

- cleaning the Pavilion for the June Picnic
- cutting branches hanging over lake
- pull weeds on Pistol Ranges #2 and #3
- install pipes for target stands on Rifle Range at 25 yard distance
- repair bridge entrance

Motion was made and approved to donate $100 to Potter Township Fire Department in memory of Earl Carlton.

Tony McClure raised the continuing problem of members using jacketed ammunition in the Indoor Range. Letter will be sent out to members reminding them of the range rules and consequences for violation. Members bringing guests are to ensure lead ball ammunition is being used. Dan Grey emphasized this is a safety problem because of the ricochet danger and damage to the backstop.
