

Has retired from direct clinical practice and now provides clinical supervision to other professionals in the field.

Education: MSW from Fordham University; MA from Brooklyn College; BA from Fordham University.

Previous Work Experience: Psychotherapist in private practice working with individuals throughout the life cycle: children, adolescents, adults and couples. Early Intervention Social Worker with Inspire, the CP Center. Social Worker in Partial Hospitalization Program at Arden Hill Hospital. Elementary School Teacher.

Additional Training/Specialty: Seminar on Treating Anxiety Disorders at Harvard University. Seminars on working with persons with Depression and with Individuals with Personality Disorders. Training in: Solution-Focused therapy, CBT, Marital Therapy, Self Injury and Eating Disorders, Trauma-related disorders, Codependency. Bilingual English/ Spanish.