

Core Compotent

*“You will not abandon me; you will not allow your faithful follower to see the Pit”
(Psalm 16:10, NET).*

Heavenly Father,

Please Thank you for helping each person reading this with whatever they are facing in life. Help them believe You, trust You and to know You are with them. Help them see the truth of what they mean to You. Help them see that You are constant, consistent and always good. Above all- help them know that You love them with a never ending unconditional love. In Jesus Name.

I felt strongly to start today's devotion by praying directly for you and to use this title. A Core Component is a fact upon which other aspects are built. It is a fact that is vital, and must be known before secondary conclusions can be drawn.

God's awareness of our needs is mind boggling to me. He is able to anticipate and provide for our every need long before we're even aware of what need. If life is not turning out the way you thought - - God is not shocked! Nothing surprises Him! “The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come so that they may have life, and may have it abundantly” (John 10:10, NET).

I can guarantee that our circumstances are different, but the fundamental principle is the same- God is bigger than any thing you are facing and He's the One you can always depend on. His desire if you trust Him to help you. If really looked at your past, you'd find that you have faced other moments just as difficult (in a different way of course) as the one you're facing right now. God didn't fail you then and He won't fail you now. “You will not abandon me to Sheol; you will not allow your faithful follower to see the Pit” (Psalm 16:10, NET).

You can NEVER balance faith with unbelief and get eternal results. You really only have two choices in life that really matter, to believe God or not. I absolutely LOVE how there are NO losers in the Kingdom of God. “For everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith” (1 John 5:4).

Today's devotion is a reminder to let your faith be bigger than whatever you are facing. If you are like me (and I think you are), you don't want to limit God in any area of your life. You want to rise in faith to every challenge with complete belief in HIM to work it out regardless of what you see in the natural.

When your faith grows dim, cling to the truth that God will not fail you. When you feel yourself giving up, turn to the ONE who never breaks HIS promise..... and know that you can believe HIM. What ever it is your facing, God is already there. What ever it is your dealing with, God will help you. What ever is pressing in on you, God's plan will be accomplished!

O Lord, I thank You that You are always with me. No matter what my circumstances look like, I believe YOU and I know that You will see me through!
