

Sign Policy

No signs may be erected or displayed in windows, on buildings or on the common grounds of the complex.

Any exceptions to this policy requires approval of the Homeowners Board of Directors.

These exceptions include one day open house realty signs and special event signs.

No signs may be erected or displayed at the front of the property as state law prohibits private commercial signs on the state road right of way.