RACING RESULTS

Mother nature was fickle again this weekend. Saturday morning there was no to little wind, discouraging many but a few stalwart MC sailors who completed one race. After returning to the dock after the race, then a nice breeze came up enticing a couple MCs to go for a leisurely sail!

Sunday morning again greeted the sailors with no wind. The Es decided to wait it out, while the Lightnings called it a day. A breeze did come up and a course was set allowing the Es to complete one race nearly at midday.

MC Scows

Sail No.	Helm	R1
1856	Chris Hawk	3
1871	Bob Cole	1
2436	Anders Hudson	2
1101	Dave Wurman	DNF

ROAD CLOSURES

There is some road work being done on Rt. 54A. Look for posted detours using County Routes 76 and 74. A new retaining wall is being installed near house #8662 (south of the Club closer to Hammondsport) which requires a detour for approximately 60 days.

A ROSE BY ANY OTHER NAME....

Janet Hallahan relates why Jimmie Hallahan named all his E-scows Misty, “Jimmie loved music, particularly “Misty” sung by Johnny Mathis, thus the name. Jimmie was very proud of his number KU-8. KU-8 was very photogenic. She appeared on postcards and even made publication in a national sailing magazine entitled The Ups and Downs of Sailing (with an all-girl crew)! Steve Bender noted that whenever Jimmie would see him, he would ask him to play Misty on the piano.

Curt Wright writes about Sass-E-Lady, “Retrofitting old boats is a pain, especially one as troublesome as ours has been. Therefore, the name Sass-E-lady seemed to fit, giving her a name she could continue sailing up to. Renaming an old boat is tricky. Who knows how serious the wrath of King Neptune could be messing around changing a boats name. To eliminate any possible wrath we stripped off the name and scrubbed the transom with acetone. Next we placed all the pieces under both tires of trailer supporting the boat and drove back and forth. Retrieving the left over pieces we poured shots of vodka and toasted to the old name giving ole King Neptune the slip.

KITCHEN GOODS FOR A GOOD CAUSE

A table has been set up outside the kitchen with various items that have accumulated over the years. Due to the Covid-19 cleaning protocols most needed to be moved out so we could maintain a very clean organized space.

We’ve decided to make them available to the KYC membership. If you would like an item you may take it with you. A donation can be made to Junior Sailing (LKSF). You may do so at the KYC bar during open hours. Cash or check (made out to Lake Keuka Sailing Foundation) only please—as this is a separate fundraiser for KYC Junior Sailing.

FOR SALE!

Three full size used tables with six chairs and cushions per table. Some wear and rust. Only $150.00/set. Please see Cara at the bar by 9/27 if you are interested.

Proceeds will be put towards four new sets of tables and chairs for the concrete skirting. We are hoping to purchase something that is easier to spray down for cleaning/sanitizing.
