

Plot: A four-part psychological drama set in Scotland and Australia, which chronicles the collapse of a marriage in the aftermath of a tragedy and explores the myths and truths of motherhood. The abduction of a baby from a small coastal town in Australia is the catalyst for a journey into the disintegrating psychology of a young woman, Joanna, as she and her husband, Alistair, deal with an unthinkable tragedy under both the white light of public scrutiny and in their private lives.

Watch on Your Own: Four One-hour Episodes [2018] On Amazon Or Its Subsidiaries Like Acorn. Language: English.

Date Tuesday, August 31

Time: 7pm via Zoom

Host: Diane Freilich

Zoom link to be sent day before we meet

Register here or call 623-322-2977

Please notify hosts if unable to attend

This discussion will occur if there are 5 committed attendees.

Please offer suggestions for the next movie.