

UBSUC CONVENTION RULES

1. Delegates should be reminded that they represent their BSU, their, all African-American youth, their family, as well as themselves.
2. Be on time to all activities. This is a very busy weekend!
3. All delegates are to be present and engage in all Convention activities.
4. All delegates, please be respectful of others at all times. (Ex: Do not talk while someone else is talking).
5. Please keep all hands to yourself. No slap boxing or horse playing.
6. The advisors are completely responsible for their delegates and should know of their whereabouts at all times. Advisors are responsible for ensuring that their delegates are safely in and remain in their rooms after evening activities are over.
7. There must be one (1) advisor or chaperon for every eight (8) delegates. Advisors for each club delegation must be registered with the convention. Participation in Convention activities will not be permitted until all club and individual fees, including late charges are paid.
8. No alcoholic beverages, drugs or cigarettes are permitted at the Convention.
9. No cell phones or other electronic device (unless approved by UBSUC) are permitted during Convention activities.
10. Badges must be worn at all times. Delegates will not be allowed into activities without showing their badges.
11. No charges may be made to the hotel room, including but not limited to phone calls, room service, etc. Please caution your delegates about charging anything to the room. You will
12. All delegates must attend all scheduled functions. The UBSUC 2018 Convention includes activities at California State University Sacramento. No delegates are to be in their rooms or designated Convention areas during Convention time.
13. Proper attire is to be stressed. Delegates must wear proper clothing (Business attire: dress or casual pants or slacks: shirts and blouses with sleeves: no hats, half-shirts, jeans, tank tops, or shorts) during convention meal and workshop sessions. Students will not be admitted to activities without proper attire. However, Friday attire is casual and appropriate school attire. Saturday: Business and Formal wear. Sunday: Business wear.
14. Any delegations that do not adhere to the above rules and regulations or at any time is not conducting themselves in the proper manner can automatically be suspended from the convention for one year and placed on probation by the Executive Board. If a delegate disobeys these rules and regulations, the advisor and parent will be notified and the delegate will be sent home at their parent's expense. Additionally, schools may enforce their discipline penalties as they deem appropriate.
15. Advisors and chaperones must be twenty-three (23) year of age or older.