

What is HUD VASH?

A partnership between the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and The Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing (VASH) to support homeless veterans in finding and maintaining permanent housing. HUD provides a Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher to eligible veterans (those who have served their country in the U.S. Armed Forces.) The VA provides case management and support to veterans transitioning from homelessness to permanent housing. The HUD-VASH Case manager will provide frequent contact, visits, and support working toward the Veteran's Recovery Plan in order to assist the Veteran to sustain independent housing in the community. The Veteran and the Case manager will create a treatment plan specific to the veterans goals and objectives.

How HUD-VASH Works . . .

The HUD-VASH Program was developed to support the national goal of ending homelessness for the hardest-to-serve individuals. Veterans must be eligible for VA health care as defined by law and regulation, must have a documented disability and must be “Chronically Homeless.” (Veterans must have an identified need for case management services which can include acute medical, substance use disorder, and/or mental health needs. Those Veterans often require a broad-range of support to establish and maintain themselves in the community in order to avoid returning to homelessness. It is the role of the HUD-VASH case manager to provide intensive case management services to assist with support and ensure that identified services are being continued after placement into the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program.
