SPECIAL THANKS

As always, we want to thank everyone who helped make this play a success. The antique furnishings are sponsored by St. Regis Past and Present, Yoakum, Texas, and Ann Moseley and Carli Elias for help with costuming. Also thanks to Tatem Carson, Edwin Wolters Memorial Museum and Victor & Doris Janak.

As Director, I personally want to thank my outstanding Cast and Crew – Elaine for her great set building skills and “scrounging” abilities and Darcy Hermes for agreeing to put together the light and sounding plots and both for their great input and ideas.

Lastly...my Cast of Two, Gabe and Jodi Adamek who put their hearts and souls into this play and became Jack and Louise. It helps that they’re married and can practice lines together! They became the characters from our first rehearsal and continued to let them grow as they got to know Jack and Louise better.
