

The Community at 6601 Bradley

When asked how many people use the Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church building, the church's former administrative assistant wrote: "During an average week, 500-800 people find meaning and purpose within the walls of the building – all to the glory of God!" We wanted to let you know about the rich variety of activities that take place within these walls. It is our hope that you will be pleased, amazed and gratified that this building is home to so many groups, each of which is striving to make a positive contribution to life in this area. In addition to the affiliated groups listed below, BHPC also plays host to several community groups throughout the week. We welcome you to join our community.
