

David Esch, SP5, USA

Assigned to AFVN (Broadcasting Section) in 1968-1969.

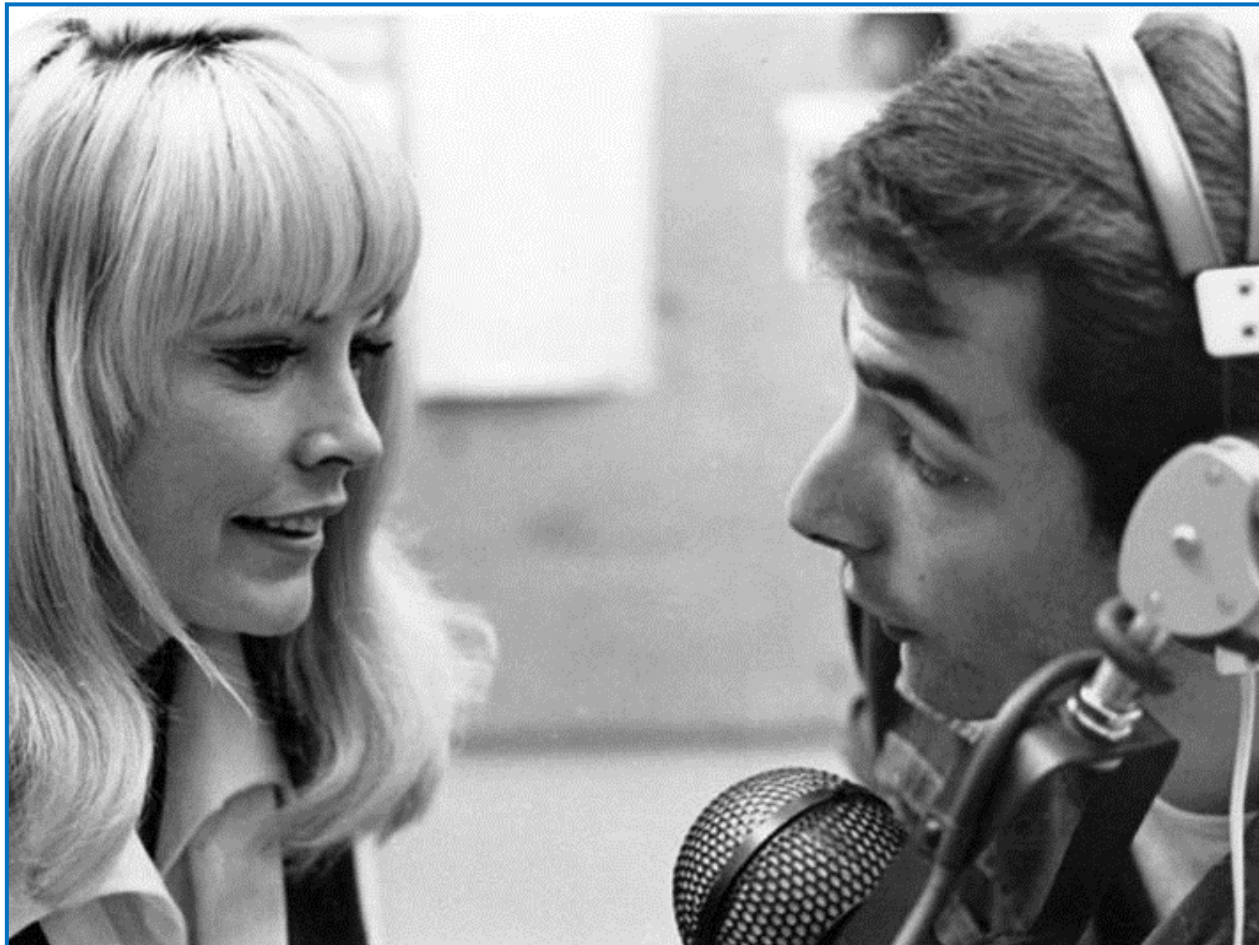

David Esch, who began a long and successful broadcast and voiceover career with a midday show on AFVN in 1968 and '69, has passed away. His resume included radio stations in Chicago, Milwaukee and Detroit and his distinctive voice was heard on a variety of platforms including TV stations nationwide and popular video games.

David lost a long battle with prostate cancer on April 2nd, 2015 in Orange County, California, where he'd recently moved, with his wife Christine, after living in Chicago for many years.

David when at AFVN (left) and in his later years (above)

David with Chis Noel

