2020 LUNCHEON SPONSORSHIP OVERVIEW

2020 LUNCHEON: CLE UNITES TO END HUMAN TRAFFICKING

SPONSORSHIP

PRESENTING SPONSOR: ANONYMOUS LOCAL FAMILY

In honor of the members of Greater Cleveland's Coordinated Response to End Human Trafficking, a program of the Collaborative to End Human Trafficking.

We are Stronger Together! Only in partnership with others can we ever hope to disrupt human trafficking. Your sponsorship of our Luncheon helps us do just that. These funds directly support the Collaborative's signature program, Greater Cleveland's Coordinated Response to End Human Trafficking. Through this work we connect and convene nearly 60 member organizations, agencies and businesses tasked with creating systemic change through cross-sector collaboration. By bringing these stakeholders to the table we collectively address human trafficking in our region in a comprehensive and coordinated way. The impact of this effort continues to grow each year and strengthens the safety net for those affected by human trafficking across Greater Cleveland. Sponsorship of this luncheon is vital to the continued success of the program's initiatives.

LUNCHEON

Collaborative to End Human Trafficking Annual Event

Each year this sold-out event reaches 450 guests, including business and civic leaders, professionals, government officials, non-profits, students, and the general public. Sponsorship of our luncheon maximizes your visibility in this effort. Your commitment will be chronicled by photographers from Cleveland Magazine and other media during the event.

The luncheon also serves as an awareness event. Attendees of prior luncheons walked away with a greater understanding of how this exploitative crime touches every industry, sometimes imperceptibly, and ideas on how their organization can disrupt it through corporate social responsibility efforts.

KEYNOTE

Joe Savarise
*Executive Director,
Ohio Hotel & Lodging Association*

Learn what the lodging industry is doing to address human trafficking in Ohio including OHLA's significant work with the Collaborative's Greater Cleveland's Coordinated Response to End Human Trafficking program. Due to the nature of this crime, the hospitality industry intersects with both sex and labor trafficking. Joe will discuss the systemic work OHLA has done with the Collaborative to create best practices in the lodging industry. Through the Collaborative, these approaches can be shared with members of other industries with the ability to apply similar practices.
