

Central Texas Pastel Society Meeting Minutes October 20, 2018

President Holly Read called the meeting to order at the Georgetown Public Library, Georgetown, Texas at 9:30 am. All were welcomed. Visitors and new members introduced themselves: Peg Emley, Tanis Lesterman, Vickie Smith.

Today's program is "Landscapes" presented by Jeri Salter, member and former President of CTPS.

Holly shared the thank you notes from Frost Elementary School students, one of the six Georgetown school art programs that received a donation of $250 from CTPS to support art teachers in purchasing supplies.

Critique groups among members were explained. Those interested in joining a new group should contact Holly.

Open Board positions were announced: Vice President, Publicity, Annual Exhibition, Membership Chair, Webmaster back-up and Chair of a fundraising committee are all in need of leadership.

Membership: Attendees at today's meeting was 30.

Treasurer: Holly reported current balance and expenses in notice received from Alora Johns who was unable to attend.

Exhibition: Sue Kernan reported that the Georgetown Library Show is December 2-29, with hanging on December 1. 16 members have signed up. Photographs for publicity are requested, details will be emailed. A reception will be held Sunday, December 7th 2-4pm.

Fundraising: Holly reported a goal for CTPS to raise funds to support local schools

IAP representative: (Jan Frazier not present): To attend the International Association of Pastel Society (IAPS) visit the website for registration for both demonstrations and workshops in Albuquerque June 4th – 9th. Some members are planning to attend.

Challenge Painting: "Way Out West" Members presented their art work: Chuck Roush photographed each painting and member.

Holiday Party: Georgetown Public Library, Sunday, December 16th from 2:30-5:00pm; A cookie exchange and gift exchange is planned. Details to follow.

New venue is sought for our annual art show and workshop. Suggested locations are welcomed.

Program Jeri Salter presented a landscape demonstration and mini-workshop from 1:00 – 4:30.

Next CTPS meeting: Saturday November 17, 9:30-12am at the Georgetown Public Library.
The Challenge Topic is "Favorite Things"
Demonstration Artist: Enid Wood

Respectfully submitted,
Sue Kernan, Secretary Substitute