SMALL CATECHISM FOR ADULTS --- A SUMMER ADVENTURE

Pastor: "How long has it been since you've opened Luther's Small Catechism? "

Response: Golly Pastor, I don't even know where mine is any longer.

Beginning June 1, I'll begin a new Sunday morning adult class with a two-fold goal:

- 1.) An Adult Information Class for adults considering the Church.
- 2.) Review of the basic content of Luther's Small catechism for those already members.

The course will begin with a two-session overview of the Bible. After that, we'll dig into the Catechism and mine its treasures for wisdom of Christian faith and life for ADULT-FAITH TODAY.

If you can find your Catechism, bring it. Or you may purchase the newest for $20. (You may want this one anyway since its questions and language have been updated.)

Give your faith a cool refreshing treat for the hot, dry, humid, and stormy days of Christian living.

You say, I'd like to do this, but summertime means I'm not in Church every Sunday. My answer, "My plan is to rerun the class every Monday at 5:00 PM." This is how serious I am about offering you this class.

Correction from May Council Minutes

Pastor had the details wrong in the published Minutes of the May Council meeting. He'd mistaken the details of our support of seminarians. The correction is: This past year the Ladies' Aid supported two seminarians by giving the seminary $4,000 ($2,000 each) toward their education. Pairs and Spares has now given one of them $2,000 for this coming year's education. The Ladies' Aid has not met to consider additional support.

Volunteer Opportunity:

Heraleen has been volunteering quarterly to help with LIFT Food Delivery Outreach. The next food distribution is on June 28th. You would pick up bundles of food, hygiene and cleaning supplies from Connection Point Church in Jackson and deliver them to people in our area (list provided). Deliveries can be made in personal vehicles or using the church bus. If you are interested, or would like more information, speak with Heraleen. Thank you.
