Course Quail Brook OLD (69.2 /118)
Weather Sunny, 70s

Quail Brook was set up with some interesting pin positions and back tee boxes (#5 pin takes top honors along with a black/yellow flag on #13 which happened to be about 5 paces on the front of the green).

The out of staters take the top 2 spots again. Mike Rolph's handicap should have been 18, not 19 resulting in a two-way tie for first with Ron Ceglia, Sr..

Ron Ceglia Jr. and John Rutigliano recorded super Johnny's - 1 good and 1 bad.

Billy learns a valuable DGA lesson... don't always have to play 9s, especially when you are giving 7 and 12 strokes to your opponents.

In match play, Larry Thiry beats John Rutigliano 3 & 1 in a match that was close for 13 holes, never swaying more than 1 or 2 holes in either direction.
