

SAN LÁZARO ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH AND SHRINE

The Parish of San Lazaro is a Catholic Christian community that welcomes members, pilgrims and visitors, putting our lives at the service of those in need. As disciples and missionaries of Jesus our community promotes the values of the Gospel that lead to and facilitate the conversion of the heart; so that, through our personal and communal witness we might grow and mature in Faith, strengthen the life of our families and community and have our individual gifts under the patronage of St. Lazarus.

OUR DEEPEST NEEDS

The word of God serves up a tremendous feast for us today. Isaiah beckons all who hunger and thirst to come to the Lord for satisfaction. The psalmist cries out, "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs" (Psalm 145:16). Saint Paul tells us that nothing can separate us from the love of God. Finally, in the Gospel, we hear the story of the miraculous feeding of over five thousand people from a mere five loaves and two fish. Most of us have our material needs met on a day-to-day basis. These scriptures, nevertheless, have much to say to the contemporary believer. We must ask ourselves, "Where are my deepest hungers? Where are my thirsts?" After material needs are satisfied and, in some cases, over-satisfied, many people still experience a deep longing for spiritual balance and well-being. As the loaves and fish are multiplied in today's Gospel, perhaps our prayer can be a longing for the satisfaction of the deepest needs that only God can fill.

SAN LAZARO CATHOLIC CHURCH AND SHRINE

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY (1786-1859) August 4

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of John Vianney's holiness: "He died seventeen years before telephones!" Call they didn't, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney's first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector's apology to the bishop, "So far to ordain just one, especially this one!" The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, "No burden to ordain one good priest!" In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, "praying," one told Vianney, "for a priest with brains." But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: "Show me the way to Ars," he tells a boy, "and I'll show you the way to heaven." To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, "My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus' disciple on earth."

In the miracle of the loaves and fishes over five thousand were fed with five loaves of bread and two fish and everyone was satisfied. All Jesus requested was to come to Him. As good stewards we must remember to thank the Lord daily for our blessings of food and even more for the spiritual food Jesus offers us through the Eucharist. God teaches us that His gifts shared, will always be more than enough.

SAN JUAN MARÍA VIANNEY
(1786-1859)
4 de agosto

El padre Juan nació en Francia, en una familia campesina pobre y esto le privó de una buena educación formal para luego estudiar en latín. A los 19 años lo despidieron del seminario por no ser apto para los estudios. Un amigo sacerdote intercedió por él ante el obispo para que lo ordenara, 'no por sus conocimientos, sino por su santidad'. Así fue. Unos años después de ordenado lo enviaron al pueblo de Ars donde había 250 personas alejadas de Dios y de la Iglesia. La gente lo rechazó, pero él los amó profundamente, oró e hizo penitencia por ellos. Poco a poco descubrieron en él a un sacerdote santo y comenzaron a convertirse. Su fama de santidad se extendió en toda Francia y Ars pasó a ser la capital de la fe, pues el gobierno francés tuvo que construir un ferrocarril hasta Ars para responder a los peregrinos. Su fama de confesor fue grande y su devoción también, pues llegó a confesar hasta 15 horas diarias, sabiendo incluso los pecados del penitente antes de que se los confesara.

NUESTRAS NECESIDADES
MÁS PROFUNDAS

La Palabra de Dios nos brinda hoy una tremenda fiesta. Isaías llama a todos los que tienen hambre y sed para que vengan a satisfacerse en el Señor. El salmista proclama: "Abres tú la mano, y sacias de favores a todo viviente" (Salmo 145:16). San Pablo nos dice que nada puede separarnos del amor de Dios. Finalmente, en el Evangelio, escuchamos sobre el milagro de la multiplicación de los cinco panes y dos pescados con que se alimentaron a más de cinco mil personas. Nuestras necesidades diarias suelen estar cubiertas. Sin embargo, estas lecturas tienen mucho que decir al creyente contemporáneo. Debemos preguntarnos: "¿Dónde está mi hambre más profunda? ¿De qué estoy sediento?". Una vez satisfechas las necesidades materiales y, en algunos casos, más que satisfechas, mucha gente sigue ansiando tener equilibrio y bienestar espiritual. Al multiplicarse los panes y pescados en el Evangelio de hoy, tal vez nuestra oración es anhelar que nuestras necesidades más hondas sean satisfechas por el único que puede hacerlo: Dios.
