Biography

Hank Langenburg, 68, of Snover, died unexpectedly Sunday, July 20, 2025 in his home. He was born October 15, 1956 in Cass City to Louis Justin and Janette Margaret (Goniwicha) Langenburg. He married Kelly Joan Walsh on June 16, 1990 in St. Ignatius Church, Freiburg. Hank worked as a plumber with his dad and for Don Vansickle Plumbing. He earned his plumbing license and was a self-employed plumber for many years. He always took pride in his work and was a perfectionist. Hank was a people person and looked forward to taking care of people. He had a big heart and was generous. Hank was even known for sometimes completing his plumbing services for free. Often referred to as "Spanky", he enjoyed deer hunting and fishing with his cousin, Paul Langenburg, and his friend, Jim Shim. Hank was a good cook and did a lot of canning from the produce he grew in his garden. He was also an animal lover. Hank loved shopping and happily created piles of Christmas gifts around the tree. He was great with kids, especially his grandchildren.
