

In a World Gone Crazy

In a world gone crazy
In a world gone crazy

TVs showing things they shouldn't show
Saying things I don't want to know
Baby, it's a world gone crazy
The devil you know or the one you don't
There's what you need and there's what you want
Baby, it's a world gone crazy

Yeah, this old life is a mystery
And I guess it's gonna be what it's gonna be
But I'll save you; you save me
From a world gone crazy
From a world gone crazy

Leaders addicted to wealth and fame
All the power and none of the blame
Baby, it's a world gone crazy
Takes me back to Able and Cain
First there's fire then there's rain
Baby, it's a world gone crazy

But I got you, and you got me
And I guess it's gonna be what it's gonna be
But I'll save you; you save me
In a world gone crazy
In a world gone crazy

We got religion wrapped in a flag
We got pretty red carpets and lots of swag
Baby, it's a world gone crazy
A lot have a little and a little have a lot
But what you got is what you got
Baby, it's a world gone crazy

But I got you, and you got me
And I guess it's gonna be what it's gonna be
But I'll save you; you save me
In a world gone crazy
In a world gone crazy

Holy men preaching to inflame
Kill you brothers in our father's name

New storm coming day
World's on fire anyway
