

CASSIDY MAE HARRIS

Cassidy Mae Harris is a Junior at Elkton High School. She has participated in 3 years of Future Business Leaders of America at Elkton High School, where she is currently the Vice President. Cassidy has competed at the local, State and National level, which has given her the opportunity to speak with international students from all over the world.

In Oregon, she has attended town halls for Senators Merkley and Wyden and participated in several women's events for awareness and support of social issues effecting women.

Through all of this Cassidy maintains a current GPA of 3.81 and has completed an additional nearly 30 college credit hours.

Cassidy plans to attend Lewis & Clark College in Portland this next fall, to study political economy and international affairs, taking pre-professional classes in international or constitutional law.
