

Freedom:

Seek the wisdom that lies within to know True Freedom, understand.

25 August 2006

Greetings Dear Heart,

A pleasure to be with you at this time for the expression of the soul for thy soul.

It is indeed noted at this time the constraints Man has laid upon himself. It is in utter dismay to see such limitations where there should be none.

If Man would only open his heart to the Freedom that lies within.

Man is so full of his ego self that he is shut off and denying himself his birthright.

It is our endeavours at this time to enlighten Man to his True Self, awaken his senses, teach him to master his Universal Powers that lie within.

Man is his own crucifier for the Almighty has set down no restraints, no limitations, no judgement, only Love.

Love of oneself, Love of another, Love of The Father.

If Man was to lift the binding shroud that surrounds him and be open and receptive to the All then Man could claim the All.

For in so doing would erase all limitations that bind him. He could explore like a child being free.

It is with great astonishment that we witness the blindness to the all encompassing Power of The Father this hour.

One must turn around and seek the wisdom that lies within to know True Freedom, understand.

It is with much deliverance this hour that we must stress upon Man to get to know himself, to explore himself, to witness his underlying causes this hour for in so doing will set him on the path to Freedom.

Man will then begin to relinquish his ties and chains that bind him, allowing only Peace and Harmony to flow. One must succumb to the beauty that lies within.

In so doing Man will finally understand Freedom.

In Love and Light.
Amen
