

eye opener

dazzled by lies
and false piety
blind to all except your deity

a pillar of hate
as your nominee
voting yourself into poverty

better open your eyes

what would it take to open your eyes
a switch blade
or a jack knife

our children
my god
killing each other
why?

better open your eyes

ninety-nine to one
the truth is bound come you can pass the buck try to deflect the blame star-belly sneetches and plain-belly, too

we are all the same
and remember:

when you
point your finger
any finger
you've got three fingers pointing back at you

now that you've opened your eyes all will be realized

now that you've opened your mind all is one of a kind
