Mr Hopwood is our castaway this week

If you could choose to be stranded on an island, which one would you choose?

Maui in Hawaii because it is where I had my honeymoon.

Which skills do you possess that would help you survive on the island?

I can build a shelter and can swim and fish to get food.

If you ran into a predator would you choose to fight or run?

I would choose fight over flight because it could give me food.

If you could be on the island with one historical figure, who would you choose?

Teddy Roserbelt or Bear Grylls.

If you found you had ended up on the island through someone's negligence, what would you do?

I would take legal action to get money to help me get rehabilitated into society.

If you had one call, who would you phone?

I would call my wife because she is very sensible and would know what to do.

What five items would you bring?

- 1) pen knife
- 2) picture of family
- 3) survival guide
- 4) comfortable shoes
- 5) umbrella

If there was an infinite source of food, what would you want it to be?

Mangoes, because I love mangoes.

If you could swap positions with someone to get off the island, who would you choose and why?

Donald Trump because he is a bad person.
