

THE ANSWER

By John Lipinski

I searched to find a way to make it through
Each day, that has a problem or two
Overwhelming it may seem, even when I've lost my steam
The Spirit, has a different point of view

The answer, to the question now is clear
The answer, is simply, you are here
To show me the way, each and ev'ry day
Holy Spirit, you're the answer to my prayer

It's hard to know, just what He has in store
And when I think I know, there's always more
I try to do things right, hoping to see the light,
On the way, to heaven's holy door

The answer, to my question now is clear
The answer, is simply, you are here
To show me the way, each and ev'ry day
Jesus, you're the answer to my prayer

A father is a source of strength and pride
With loving trust, a family to guide
Showing warm concern and care, and always being there
With our Lord, standing by his side

Oh, Father, the answer now is clear
The answer, is simply, you are here
To show me the way, each and ev'ry day
Our Father, you're the answer to my prayer
