Call to Worship (responsively)

Leader: May the glory of God endure forever,

People: May God rejoice in God's works,

Leader: I will sing to God as long as I live;

People: I will sing praise to my God while I have being.

Unison: May my meditation be pleasing to God, in whom I rejoice.

Gathering in God's Name

Opening Hymn “Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!” PH#138

Choral Call to Confession “Create In Me a Clean Heart”

Create in me a clean heart, O God,

And renew a right spirit within me.

Create in me a clean heart, O God,

And renew a right spirit within me.
Cast me not away from your presence, O Lord,
And take not your Holy Spirit from me.
Restore unto me the joy of your salvation,
And renew a right spirit within me.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

We cannot see your face, O God, on account of our sin.
We hesitate to look others in the face, except to find our own reflection. We have turned the window of your grace into a mirror. We do not see your image and sometimes we do not even recognize ourselves. Help us face up to ourselves, O God. Turn us to face you in gratitude. Lead us to face the same direction with companions in faith in your service.
(Continue with silent prayer of Confession on your own) Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Sermon “If Not us, Who Else?”

Affirmation of Our Faith—the Nicene Creed

We believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible;

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of the Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father by whom all things were made; who for us men, and for our salvation, ———→

came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead, whose kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And we believe one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins. And we look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

First Scripture Reading

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. ² And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³ Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. ⁴ All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

⁵ Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. ⁶ And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. ⁷ Amazed and astonished, they asked, ‘Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?’ ⁸ And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, ¹¹ Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.’ ¹² All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, ‘What does this mean?’ ¹³ But others sneered and said, ‘They are filled with new wine.’

¹⁴ But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: ‘Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. ¹⁵ Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. ¹⁶ No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

¹⁷ “In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

¹⁸ Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;

and they shall prophesy.

¹⁹ And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below,
blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

²⁰ The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

²¹ Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Second Scripture Reading

1 Corinthians 12:3-13

³ Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says 'Let Jesus be cursed!' and no one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit.

⁴ Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; ⁵ and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; ⁶ and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. ⁷ To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. ⁸ To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, ⁹ to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, ¹⁰ to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. ¹¹ All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

¹² For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³ For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

DONATION OPPORTUNITY: North Dakotans 4 Ukraine along with Global Neighbors will welcome the Zadorozhnia family to Bismarck on July 1st. The family members are Vira and her two daughters, Veronika 21 and Eva 12. Edward, the father, is not allowed to leave Ukraine at this time. Vira has a master's degree in geological/topographical science, Veronika is working toward an advanced degree in the medical laboratory field, the father is a lawyer, and Eva will be entering 8th grade.

Four churches are currently involved with ND 4 Ukraine: United Church of Christ, Lutheran Church of the Cross, Unitarian Universalist, and our congregation. An apartment has been secured for the family, and the first month's rent has been paid. Funding is available for future needs.

Furniture and kitchen supplies are being taken care of by the other congregations, but we have been asked to stock the kitchen. A list of kitchen supplies is posted on the volunteer bulletin board, and donated items can be dropped off at our church. Gift cards to local grocery stores are also welcome. Little Odessa, a small grocery store on Broadway specializes in foods from Central Europe and is worth checking out for some of the items on the donation list. Please help provide the Zadorozhnyas with a warm welcome and a good start on their life in our community!

Flowers this week are in memory of:
Delmar Lewis & Dennis Pengilly
A gift from: Danette, David, Drew, Paige
& Luke Pengilly

CCC Needs List for June:
