Guest Speakers

Tonight will be a little different than in years past. This year we've asked a few of our Visiting Outfitters to share their own "Campfire Memories." These will be humorous or interesting stories of being on safari, from the Outfitters point of view. Included in this panel of discussion will be:

Shane Johnston - Outfitting for 23 years Down Under in New Zealand, as well as in recent years in Australia comes one of the South Pacific's highly decorated Outfitters, Shane Johnston of Four Seasons Safaris New Zealand, who has gained numerous international accolades & Outfitter awards.

Shane states, "Hunting is a way of life...always has been and always will be...and when the chips are down, hunters will always hunt!"

Jannie Otto – With over 35 years of experience in the safari industry and a flawless reputation, Safari Outfitter Jannie Otto, is based in South Africa, 40 minutes' drive from the Kimberley airport in the Northern Cape. He also hunts in other Provinces of South Africa and African Countries, Zimbabwe, Mozambique and Tanzania.

Ted Nugent AUTOGRAPHED GUITAR

Description Of Donation: A Red, White and Blue American Flag Autographed Acoustic Guitar, signed by Ted Nugent himself. Along with photos of the Motor City Madman, and other memorabilia.

Ted Nugent is a stalwart American hard rock singer, songwriter, and guitarist who is as divisive as he is legendary. Throughout his lengthy career, the Motor City Madman has reveled in the controversy and criticism that always seem to follow his path – his pro-right-wing beliefs and pro-gun advocacy have caused condemnation from his detractors – but his Wildman persona and knack for penning arena rock anthems made him one of the biggest rock stars of the late '70s and early '80s.

In addition to music, Nugent has gotten involved in politics, hosting a number one morning radio show in Detroit, has run his own hunting camp and issues instructional videotapes (as well as the Ted Nugent Spirit of the Wild PBS video series); owns his own hunting supply store; has been appointed to the board of directors of the National Rifle Association; writes columns regularly for a number of different magazines; and even sells his very own beef jerky (called Gonzo Meat Biltong)!
