Come to Me

Come to Me.... Can't you see....Just.... how much I love you?

Here you're free... just to beall.... you've ever hoped for.

Now you're home.... you're not alone....your family.... adores you.

My Daughter, I welcome you...home

Can you believe.... and just receive...Truly..... You're My Daughter

Bride of Christ... His sacrifice...Has formed you... in His glory

This is your home... no need to roam...For all your dreams.... are real here

My child... you are finally home

Now..... rest in Me, I've set you free...From fear..... and condemnation

Your shining heart's, been set apart...For endless.... celebration

In harmony.... our family...Will live life.... to its fullest

My Daughter..... Rejoice! you are home.

It's time to rejoice now, It's time to rejoice now

With angels we're singing, With angels we're dancing

Heaven's rejoicing, All Heaven's rejoicing

We're singing and dancing

Forever rejoicing, forever rejoicing

(softly) It's time to rejoice (trailing off)
